Experience, Achievements Qualify Burnett

At the age of 18 Maryvale High School Principal Louis E. Burnett began his career in secondary education by teaching school in Texas. Since then he has earned various degrees from universities including Texas, Oklahoma, Colorado, and Arizona.

At the outbreak of World War II, Mr. Burnett taught air force navigation and was involved with the pilot training program. In 1944 he came to Phoenix where he worked with the Office of Price Administration. Later he joined the Phoenix Union High School System as head of the academic division of the Phoenix Technical School.

Mr. Burnett has been the lodestar in the initiation of two high schools in the district. At Camelback's organization he was assistant principal, and he has been MHS's principal since its beginning.

Music instructor, Mr. Harris, converses with Mr. Burnett about an upcoming orchestra concert.

The job of an administrator is filled with many tedious tasks. Many of which can only be accomplished by long hours of work at a desk. Mr. Burnett completes one of these jobs by filling out a report.

Administrative Assistant

MHS exceeded its capacity this year with approximately 3,400 students. All of those individuals had to be scheduled into classes and this task belonged to Assistant Principal, Elzie Myers. Mr. Myers, formerly an administrator at Carl Hayden High, has been with MHS since its opening.

For nine years prior to her position as Administrative Assistant at MHS, Mrs. Jane Hamlin was a human relations educator at Phoenix Union High School. Mrs. Hamlin, who sponsors Girls' league Cabinet and Student Executive Committee along with Mr. Snodgrass finds her job at MHS very gratifying.

Native Arizonian, Mr. Bernard Magnusson, MHS's new Administrative Assistant, supervises all activities on campus. Mr. Magnusson who is a graduate of Mesa High was active in sports throughout his school years and was awarded the honor of All-American in college.

Deciding district policies, hiring new faculty and administrators and the building of new schools are but a few of the many jobs required of the Phoenix Union High School Board. The Board which is composed of five unpaid members and the District Superintendent meet bi-weekly to solve the many dilemmas faced by the system and create better methods of executing the set policies.

Incorporated into the science program this year, astronomy is an extra-curricular study opportunity. Mr. C. Walker teaches this class twice a week after school. Though the class is extra-curricular, interest is high and one day astronomy may be added to the curriculum.

Typing, Shorthand Invaluable Training

The Business Education Department of MHS provides training for employment in office work or retailing and also offers courses which every student will find useful.

Those students planning to attend institutions of higher learning will find typing, shorthand, and notehand invaluable when time is at a minimum. Courses such as marketing, business machines, and clerical office training offer worthwhile experience to the student entering the business world.

Through the incorporating of eleven courses, MHS offers a varied program in business to the student who is serious in his business pursuit.

Language Students Mix Fantasy, Reality

Mr. Navarrete leads his class in singing French carols — a diversion from the routine schedule during the Christmas season.

"Los Arboles Mueren de Pie," a three act play written by Alejandro Casona, is a mixture of fantasy and reality. The translation of both this play and the novel, "Los Inquietudes de Shanti," is the principal assignment for the fourth and third year Spanish classes.

Besides the four years of Spanish,

Maryvale offers two years of Latin and French. To supplement the mechanical and conversational instruction given, students in all foreign language classes are taught much of the country's culture and history while they are also given the opportunity to make up their own skits and even sing.

Herb Tucker points to a troublesome word on the board as he and Steve Kennedy translate a Latin paragraph.

A recent addition to the Fine Arts family, harmony teaches Traditional and Modern music composition. These courses enable students to compose, transpose, orchestrate, take dictation, and to recognize movements and rhythms.

For the 'visual' artist the expressive need is found through material substances. To develop his needs, Maryvale offers classes in art, crafts, ceramics, drawing technique, graphics, and sculpture. The musicians are offered concert orchestra, band, and choir. Humanities Course Contemplates Fates

Why are we on earth? Are we masters of our own lives or are we driven by fate? Such questions as these are explored and contemplated in humanities, a new addition to the English Department. Joining drama, speech, journalism, and publications, humanities delves into the study of sculpture, music, literature, architecture, painting, and dance.

In apposition to this, literary and grammatical English are taught to students in two separate semesters with the exception of the sophomores who receive nine weeks of speech, grammar, literature, and speed reading. A special reading course is offered to seniors to improve their reading speed and comprehension.

Advanced Algebra 3 & 4 presents many perplexing problems. Miss Hruza helps Bob Voigt solve a baffling problem involving tangents and cosines.

"How do you measure the volume of a candy kiss?" questions an exasperated Advanced Senior Math student as he seeks the answer to this and many more such perplexing problems. In the advanced senior class, no repetition of the previous years of studies was experienced. Instead the students were immediately introduced to such terms as Boolean Algebra, implicit functions, and definite integrals. This accelerated senior study is the climax to a proposed four-year course which is usually initiated in the freshman year with general math or algebra. Geometry, third-year algebra, and trigonometry are the remaining courses offered to test the wits of the aspiring MHS mathematicians.

Realizing that a healthy body and an educated mind are of equal importance, the MHS Physical Education Department seeks to obtain desirable character, personality and inter-personal relationships through a varied program of physical activity.

In PE each student is acquainted with the fundamentals behind the individual and team sports, with skills being developed through daily exercise and participation. Advanced PE is offered to those students who excel in the various activities or who participate in pom, cheer, football, basketball, wrestling or other team competitions. Committee Pushes Constitution Changes

One of the major objects of Student Government this year was the hosting of the Arizona Associated Student Councils Convention. Following the convention, Student Government turned their attention to those things directly related to school activities. Due to the expanded sessions next year, one area of their concern was the amending of the constitution to provide for a smaller Student Council which would be able to work more effectively and efficiently. Writing a letter to General Westmoreland, Commander of the American Forces in Vietnam, selling postcards of MHS, and sponsoring a Rodeo Barbeque were among the other activities of Student Government.

His audacity offensive to her, Josephine, Vangie McCullough, flatly refuses Ralph's, Robbie Kolb's, proffered love.

"I like to hear you praise your captain," says Sir Joseph, Harvey Tucker, "I dare say he don't deserve it . . ."

'HMS Pinafore' Sails Into MHS to Delight

As Josephine and Ralph are plotting a secret marriage, Dick Deadeye, Jerry Merritt, scorns the crew and their girlfriends, Bob McDonald, Candy Davis, Don Harrison, Chris Thayer, Bob Colman, Lenora VanAsdale, Milton McCoy, Cherie Thacker, Ronnie Richardson, and Judy Williams for their hope that Josephine and Ralph could ever be wed.

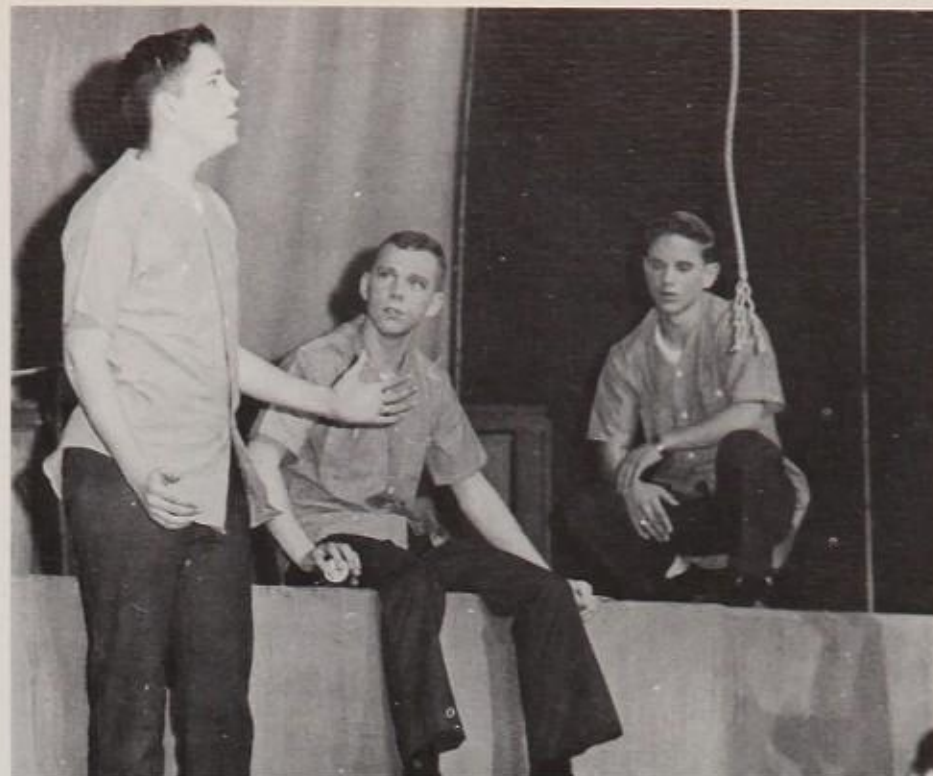

"We sail the ocean blue, and our saucy ship's a beauty. We are sober men and true, and attentive to our duty." These were the first lines as the curtain opened to the showing of HMS Pinafore. While the cast learned their music and dialogue, there were others behind the scenes who were concerned with make-up, costumes, hair styles, lighting, and sets. Soon the orchestra was brought in to work with the cast. Finally, the play was ready, and Maryvale had the best high school lighting system in the Southwest to show it off.

The play itself concerned a lad, Ralph Rackstraw, who loved Josephine, a lass above his station. Josephine, the captain's daughter, is supposed to marry Sir Joseph KCB, the admiralty's first lord, who she does not love. The play ends in bliss and rapture with the "three loving couples to plight their troths in wedlock all on the same day."

Robbie Kolb, Ralph's frustrated love for a lass above his station drives him to attempt to commit suicide as he warns the others never to love a lass above their stations.

Middle: Ralph, Robbie Kolb; Bosn's Mate, Charles Jenkins; and the Bosn, Harley Baxter, solemnly sing the song composed by Sir Joseph especially for all British Tars. Bottom: Cousin Hebe, Pat Behr; Josephine, Vangie McCullough; and Ralph, Robbie Kolb sing of their plans to sneak ashore so he and Josephine can be wed.

Student Activities Prove Entertaining, Memorable

Mike Ruble, Vic Werhanowicz, Bruce Jennings, Barbara Keller, Carol Bartholomeaux, and Sherry McLean use team work to try to move the obstinate pony from his feed.

In typical western fashion, Vic Werhanowicz slugs Bruce Jennings while cowgirls Carol Bartholomeaux and Sherry McLean make fun of them.

Mike Ruble, Barbara Keller, Sherry McLean, Carol Bartholomeaux, Vic Werhanowicz, and Steve Elmore keep the pony's attention while Bruce Jennings sneaks around to mount it.

Students Experience Day of Unrelenting Darkness

What is it like to be enshrouded in a blanket of blackness? Several Advanced Physics students had an opportunity to experience this feeling for twenty-four hours through Mr. Gilleland's Blind for a Day experiment. Each wore a mask covered with black velvet and were accompanied at all times by another student.

Other Maryvale students spent two weeks in Flagstaff during the summer learning about publishing a yearbook and a newspaper. Homework plus time for recreation kept the Publication Workshoppers busy.

At the AIPA Convention, schools over the state sent representatives to attend the small workshops held at ASU in Tempe. Here, the Pine and Pen was passed out and all the Workshoppers had a reunion.

Lace bordering her mask, Charlotte Myers participates in the Blind for a Day experiment by attempting to assemble a puzzle.

Groping his way through the halls, Harvey Tucker looks for the door while Ted Nissle watches for any obstacle that might be harming to Harvey.

Originator of the Blind for a Day experiment, Mr. Frank Gilleland conducts it for the third time at Maryvale.

Marc Aramian escorts blind student Peggy Keating to her class while Roz Graham and Pat Hebert aid Meredith Haley.

Expanding the musical opportunities for the Varsity Band this year, six ensembles were organized including clarinet, trombone, French horn, flute, percussion, and brass.

With the opening of school, Varsity Band donned their marching shoes and hats to entertain the crowds at halftime with precision drills.

In March the Concert Band attended the All City Festival. The end of the month brought the annual two mile march in the Rodeo Parade.

Mid-April saw the ASU Statewide Competition in Tempe which the band and ensembles entered.

To sustain the bus fees the band cut a 45 rpm record and sold them with Panther Growl on one side and the Alma Mater on the other.

Bringing the school year to a close, the band put on a Pops Concert in the mall geared for family entertainment.

Competition Is Stimulating to Musicianship

Mr. Harris, Music Department head, prepares the schedule for his harmony class.

Besides a more formalized dress this year, the orchestra achieved a bigger and fuller sound. To show other schools what Maryvale's orchestra has accomplished and to hear other schools' progress, it attended the All City Orchestra Festival at East High in April. At this festival, the orchestra was not judged as such, but received a paper with suggestions and compliments.

The biggest project for the organization this year was the HMS Pinafore. About a month and a half before the performance, the orchestra began work on the musical score. This group also attended a festival in Tucson.

New robes, a musical, and a tour of California over the Rodeo weekend were among the activities which helped make the year a memorable one for the Concert Choir.

Robes which the Choir wore at performances were rented, but hopes are that robes will be purchased in the future. In addition to the robes, the choir had a sporty outfit.

Opening of Maryvale's first musical, HMS Pinafore, represented hours of work by many members of the Concert Choir, who comprised a major part of the cast.

Climaxing the year for the Choir was a tour of California. Highlights of the trip were many with the group performing at the naval base at Terminal Island. Tours were conducted to points of interest with Grouman's Theater, Farmers' Market, Disneyland, and Forest Lawn listed as high points.

Chosen from the Concert Choir, the Madrigals is an advanced choral ensemble consisting of six boys and seven girls. Under the leadership of Mrs. Beeson, they performed regularly with the Concert Choir.

Another enclave of the music department is the Flames, a group composed of five senior boys, Marc Aramian, Mike Steinbaugh, Tim Babcock, Harvey Tucker, and Keith Bauman. Their initiation began four years ago at one of Maryvale's first assemblies when they tumbled out of a gigantic Christmas present to entertain the awaiting students.

Cowboys, Spacemen Personify "Days

Prehistoric cavemen lumbered around the football field October 22 leading the eras of the past in a parade of time. These cavemen, freshmen in disguise, were first in a line of class councils, clubs, and other organizations that marched during the half-time celebrations.

The theme, "Days Gone By," was personified by the representation of the Roman, Roaring Twenties, Wild West, and Space Ages. Following the procession, the king and queen, Marty Inslund and Sharon Dwyer, were crowned.

On behalf of the Key Club, Tony Dowell presents a football autographed by the entire team to Sharon Dwyer, the new Homecoming Queen.

Graduates of '65 and their dates were formally invited to the Homecoming festivities as the honored guests of the evening.

At the dance after the game, Steve Brantley, Frank Cranley, Linda Cottrell, and Peggy Weber celebrate the 14-7 victory over the Alhambra Lions.

During the evening's activities are Lynn Cushing, Sam Pullano, Marion Hughes, Rock Pearson, Nancy Pullano, and David Hughes.

"Nighttime In Netherlands" Christmas Formal Theme

Bathed in various shades of soft blue, the MHS gymnasium became a fantasyland of enchantment as students attending the Christmas Formal spent a "Nighttime in Netherlands." Setting the theme for the event were a Dutch windmill and an igloo containing a multi-mirrored ball which slowly revolved, adding the finishing touch to the formal occasion.

During the evening refreshments were served in the cafeteria where decorations in keeping with the season continued the theme.

Climaxing the evening was the crowning of Bobby Yeats and Patti Miles as Duke and Duchess. To the strains of soft music the couples danced through the evening, their journey to the Netherlands slowly coming to a close.

Starlight, Gentle Breezes Accent "Toujour Amour"

Sparkling eyes and carefree smiles beneath a canopy of dark sky and glittering stars set the atmosphere for the Junior-Senior Prom, "Toujour Amour." Held at Mountain Shadows, the Prom marked the final tribute to the senior class by the class of 1967. Carrying out the theme, French inspired decorations completed the more than perfect desired effect.

To the music of the Ray Andrade Orchestra students danced and enjoyed refreshments beside the pool while the light of the many torches around the patio area reflected in the shimmering surface. Lingerin memories will recall starlight, soft breezes and "Toujour Amour."

Poolside beneath the stars, Anne-Marie Fish, Bud Gammill, Pat Motte, Roger Lange, Roz Graham, Mike Wood, Sue Innes, and Walter Switzer dance to the music of the Ray Andrade Orchestra.

Reflecting the mood of "Toujour Amour," two seniors silently contemplate the future, not needing words to express feelings.

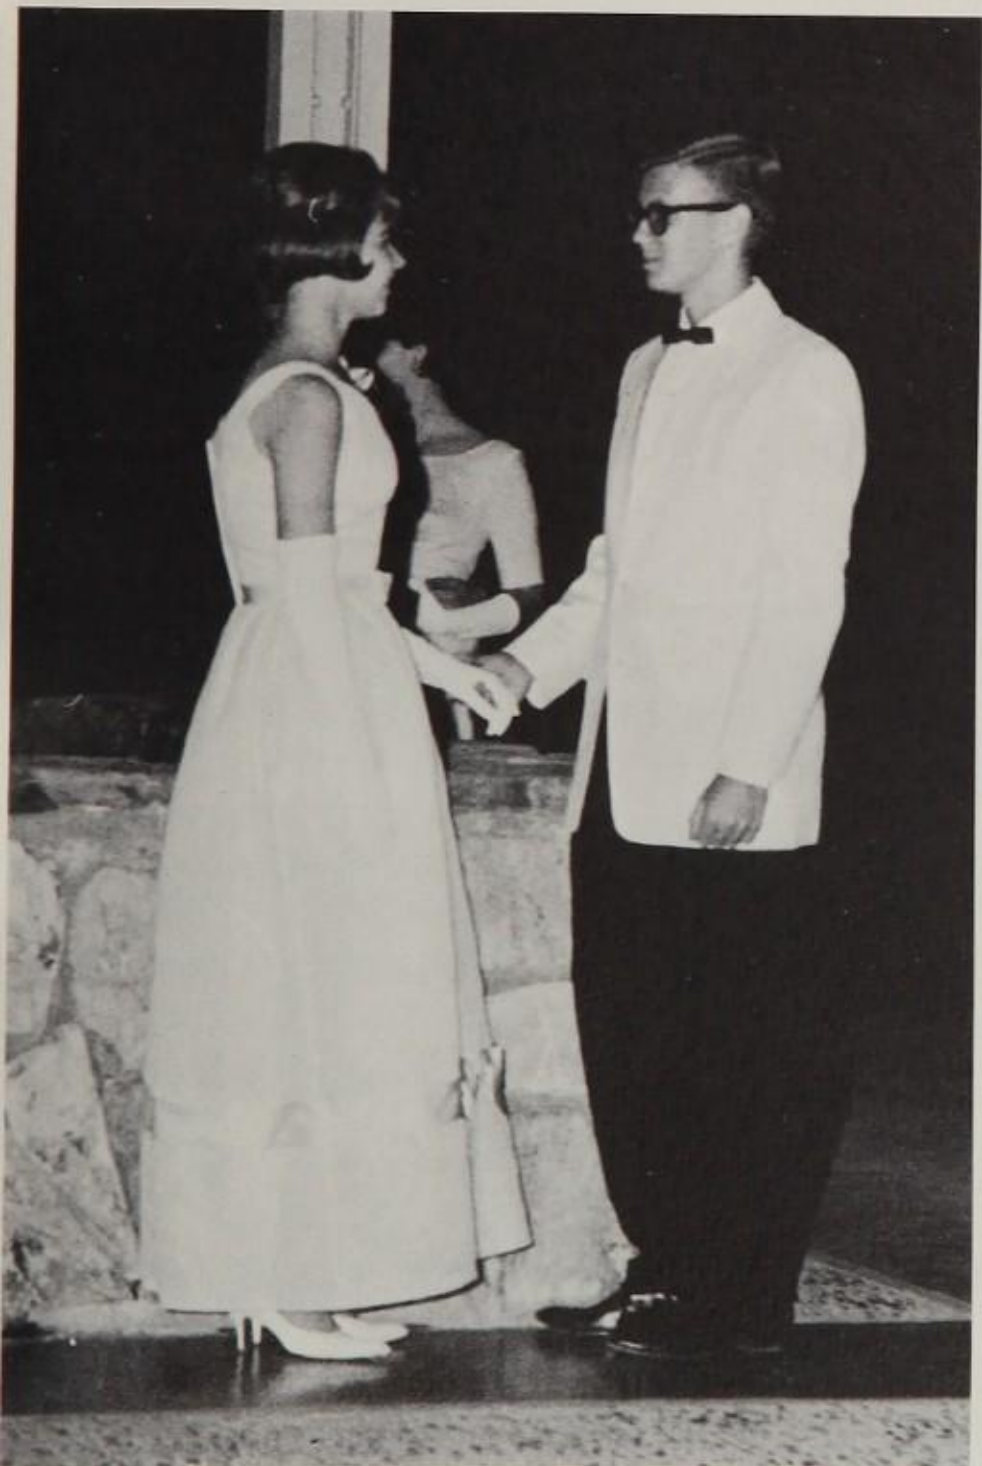

Between dances Sue Innes, Walter Switzer, Anne-Marie Fish and Bud Gammill discuss plans for dinner after the Prom.

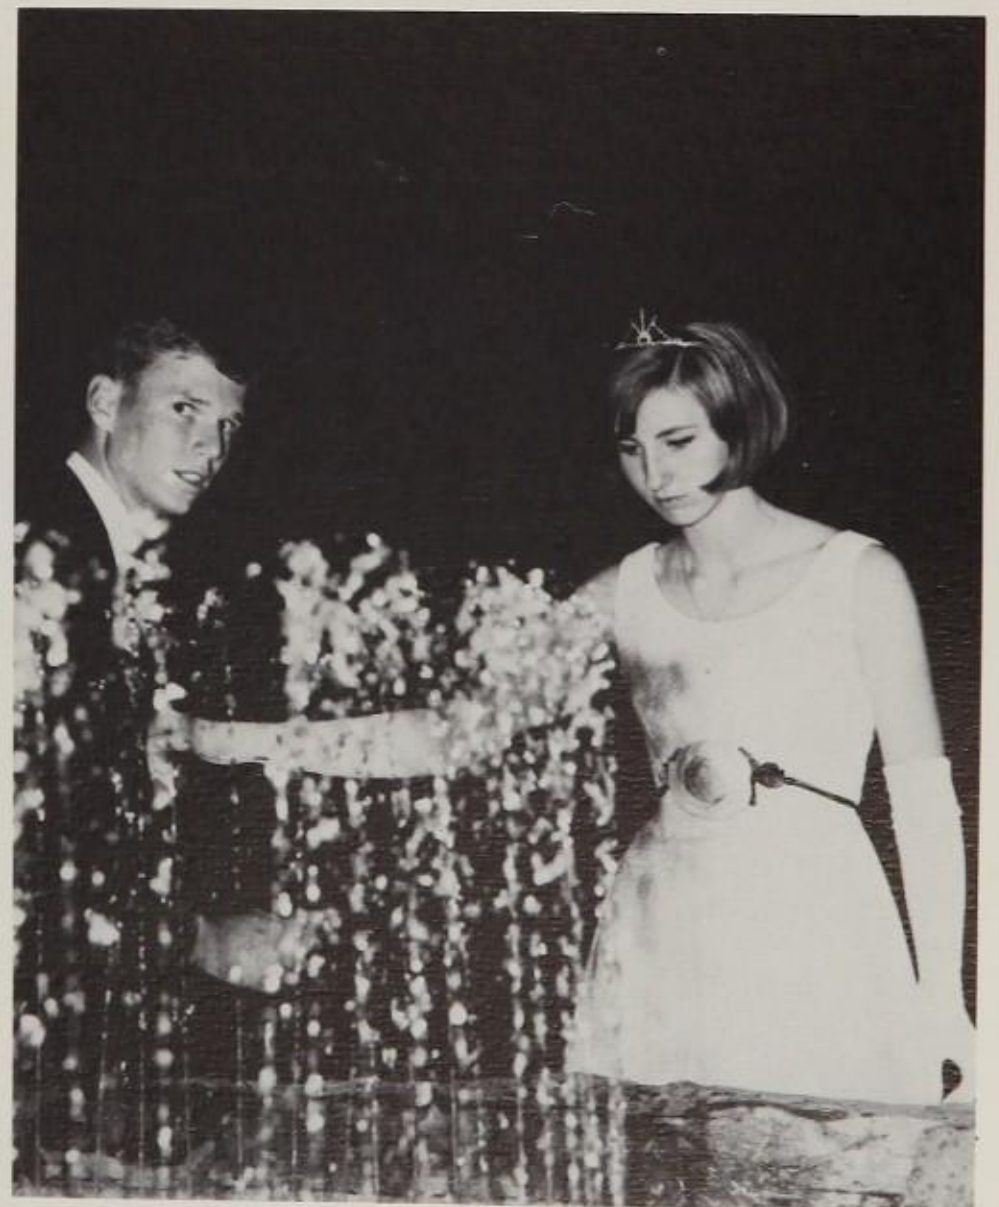

Designed for "The Out Crowd," Flirtation Walk provides Mike Wood, Roz Graham, Anne-Marie Fish, Bud Gammill and Sue Innes a place to relax weary feet after an evening of dancing.

Seated at one of the many tables on the patio area, Pat Motte and Roger Lange enjoy refreshments.

With the adopting of a newer method of printing, letter press, a better paper quality, and the use of subscriptions, Panther Tracks marked the beginning of a new year. Under the editorship of Mike Wook, who attended the annual Publications Workshop during the summer, Panther Tracks was compiled through the efforts of fifteen staffers. The usual format of publishing once a month was altered with an issue going on sale every two weeks.

Highlighting the year for the Panther Tracks staff was the printing of two special editions; one which consisted of 1000 copies and was distributed to the AASC Convention Delegates. The other, an April Fool's edition, which contained only funny stories, pictures and jokes was published on the traditional Fool's Day.

Be there at 3:00 sharp to take that picture. Does anybody have an extra typewriter. Newspaper—your own side, please! I'm starved; What time is it? You mean nobody took any Homecoming pictures! We're working this Saturday. I'm not going to tell Mr. Flanders we have to take the band picture over. Hallelujah! Malcolms will take an ad! If you don't stay on your own side, newspaper . . . Don't forget to cover that track meet Saturday. How can I write copy about that club? Will somebody take these empty coke bottles back before I trip over them. I finally finished the wrestling section. That picture will never fit in the layout I've drawn. I said 8" x 4"; not 4" x 8". Just one more time; that's all we're going to tell you newspaper. Mr. Stinson, how do you write headlines for a losing basketball team? I repeat, a yearbook staffer does not live by Pepsi alone. Okay, let's take a vote. Which will it be, KRUX or KUPD? 4:00 in the morning! I think maybe we're going to make the deadline."

Creative Writing Club attempted to encourage writers to face "the struggle with the language, a piece of paper, and . . . their own souls" in two ways.

First, members' manuscripts and compositions were read and criticized publicly, in this manner receiving a great number of effective suggestions.

Second, a study of markets for student writers was held. From this study members learned how to analyze a magazine and discovered where information about a magazine's needs and wants could be obtained. They made local surveys of the facilities for research, of how to question an editor, and of how to prepare and submit manuscripts.

Their main project was the compilation of the Scriptor. Consisting of members' best creative writing efforts, this is a short publication which come out in the spring of every year.

The Promise

Soft, steady, pure was her gaze—

one of faith,

For I had promised and

As I remembered,

A tear caught upon my eyelash, broke free

And rushed down my face.

Hollow promise from a hollow being;

I pondered the thought and remorsefully

Admitted it to my heart and hid it

Deep within.

Heavy became my burden,

For one can bear the disappointment wrought

by others;

Disappointment in one's self dashes the hopes . . .

breaks the spirit . . .

denies the faith.

Soft, steady, pure was her gaze—

one of faith,

I sighed, promised anew,

But my ears detected the heavy beat

Of a stoney heart within a hollow frame.

As a community service, the chapter together with Kings Club collected the litter along 59th Avenue from Osborn to Indian School Road.

FBLA found its goals in attempting to develop competent, aggressive business leadership, to create more interest and understanding in the intelligent choice of a business occupation, and to participate in cooperative business efforts, seeking to prepare students for the business world.

Stimulation of an interest in France is the main purpose of the MHS French Club. Through a variety of activities, club members not only satisfied a desire to learn more about the country itself but also gained a greater understanding of the French people and their culture.

With the aid of movies and slides, club members viewed the French people in all walks of life, greatly increasing their knowledge of life in France. Skits, songs, and games all performed in French provided an amusing way for club members to understand more fully the French people and their country.

Purchasing four Target 22's worth six hundred dollars and paying for them in one year was the Gun Club's biggest achievement this year. Nearly every Thursday, eight members went to West High School's Firing Range and got target practice shooting with the club's new rifles. Ammunition was purchased by each member individually from the club which obtained the ammo wholesale. From these sales Gun Club received a marginal profit. Occasionally, the club went to the Black Canyon Firing Range.

A prerequisite to becoming a member of the Gun Club was to earn the NRA award. This award takes ten hours of classroom instruction and two hours on the range or in the field.

Occasionally the club obtained films concerning hunting safety to which the student body was invited to view.

The club's purpose of promoting interest in biology, furthering education through scientific attitudes, and learning more about biology through extracurricular study was well served this year.

"To foster an interest in physics and related fields," is the aim of the students who comprise the MHS Physics Club. Advancement of this goal came through club projects as the building of a Dutch windmill and the mirrored ball which set the mood for the Christmas Formal.

To raise funds members repaired radios for students and teachers and polished stones for ties.

On field trips members acquainted themselves with the geology of the area and visited companies which employ physical principles in their operations.

Math Club's Objective

A drive to sell Sweetheart and Panther pillows and a trip to Los Angeles were the primary objectives of the Math Club this year. During the Los Angeles trip, the group was conducted on a tour of the IBM Museum and observed the unique displays of mathematical designs.

The club is now in the process of obtaining a charter to the national organization Mu Alpha Theta. Speakers from ASU, PC, and industries such as General Electric spoke to the club on the opportunities in mathematical careers. Students also made presentations that they themselves prepared.

Cabinet Launches Intercouncil Meetings

Comprised of council presidents, vice-presidents, and the cabinet officers themselves, Girls' League Cabinet is the coordinator of all four subordinate councils. Initiating a new practice this year, the cabinet arranged intercouncil meeting once a month. Also new this year is a point system which is aimed at eliminating all inactive members and honoring outstanding ones. Points can be earned by attending council meetings and participating in service activities, such as serving on a committee or popping corn for games. Traditionally, Cabinet takes charge of popcorn sales during the lunch period, and collects money for the Flarie Den Boer Scholarship which is awarded at the end of each year to the girl who has contributed the most to Girls' League.

A get acquainted barbeque set off the year for the Senior Girls' League Council.

"Nighttime in Netherlands," this year's Christmas Formal, was Girls' League's principal preoccupation. Senior Council was responsible for the table decorations and the Dutch shoes for the gym. Money for the Formal came from holding bake sales at Govway and making and selling candy wreaths at Christmas time.

In March the Seniors in cooperation with the other councils went to Holiday Park School to help a troop of Girl Scouts write letters to the Arizona Marines in Viet Nam. Other services included hostessing two banquets.

During occasional meetings, the girls auctioned old, usable articles to each other to raise money for the Flarie Den Boer Scholarship Fund.

Junior Girls' League's main interest lay with the Cerebral Palsy children. Council members entertained the children with stories, songs, and refreshments, and in return learned more about the disease and its victim's needs. In March, the Council worked on the Cerebral Palsy Telethon.

Along this same line, members visited convalescent children in Maryvale Hospital and brought them treats.

To keep the spirit of the Council renewed, members experienced a come-as-you-are breakfast, and a swimming party.

Services to the school itself included hostessing at the Football and Cross Country Banquets.

Funds for the Council's operation and for the Girls' League Scholarship were earned by putting on car washes, pop bottle hunts, and bake sales.

As a branch of the Maryvale Girls' League, Sophomore Council functions as a service organization to the school and community. Also, helping to strengthen the relationship between the girls at Maryvale, it gave them an opportunity to become better acquainted and to work together as a cooperative council.

One of the council's service projects was writing to the servicemen in Viet Nam. Highlighting their year was the Christmas Formal where the sophomores were in charge of publicity and the crowns for the royalty.

In the spring, Council planned a dessert for Mother's Day for all Maryvale girls and their mothers.

Perhaps the most successful efforts of the Freshman Girls' League Council this year was their fashion show for the eighth grade girls in the district. At this fashion show, Council members modeled and explained suitable and unacceptable modes of dress. Afterwards, the freshmen served refreshments, and they had a chance to chat with their visitors.

Selling name tags to those of the student body who still "didn't know their names" was one of the froshes' endeavors toward building their treasury.

The prospective nurses took tours of various hospitals this year. At the State Hospital two girls were allowed to observe the techniques employed by the personnel to help the patients.

Besides interesting people in nursing, FNA aided needy families at Easter and Christmas.

Producing HMS Pinatofore was Thespians first attempt at a musical. In the production of the operetta, volunteers prepared the sets, lights, and costumes, and the MHS orchestra provided the musical accompaniment.

The last production was Arsenic and Old Lace, a story of two old ladies who poisoned wine, offered it to people, and buried all the bodies in the basement.

Through the experiences of the productions, Troupe 480 of the National Thespians Society sought to establish and advance standards of excellence in all phases of dramatic arts.

The climax of the Art Council's year was sponsoring the annual Art Show. Entered in this show were works done by the art students including pencil drawings, oils, and collages, a type of abstraction using a conglomeration of fragments. At the end of the show, all the entries were auctioned off, and the profit was set aside for scholarships. Other money made on the sale of Dingbats also went toward scholarships.

Not always staying at home, Art Council made excursions to the Scottsdale Art Gallery, the Phoenix Art Museum, and made a one day trip to the old mining town of Jerome, Arizona, to make sketches.

In expression of the Council's goal, to further an interest in art, the outstanding art students received scholarships at graduation.

Lions Club Proteges Supply a Coat Check

Bruce Caldwell, Ross Vandercook, Bob Innes, Al McDonald, and Mr. Kemper on the ladder are decorating one of the two Christmas trees the Kings Club donated to the school during the holiday season.

By ushering and serving as bus-boys at school events and collecting for the March of Dimes Drive, Kings Club, sponsored by the Lions Club, works to serve the school and the community. Other school projects included showing movies such as "El Cid," and "Charade" in the auditorium at reduced prices and running a coat check at the latter number of the school dances.

In the service to school, members went out in the parking lot one afternoon during football season and put black and gold streamers on the aerals of every car to promote school spirit.

High points of the year were hosting the International Kings Club Convention in the fall, and as every year, donating and decorating a pair of Christmas trees for the mall areas.

By ushering at the HMS Pinafore musical production, by serving as guides to visitors on campus during the AASC Convention, and by conducting a series of inter-school wrestling matches, Key Club members are of service to the school and community and gain practical organizational experience.

In service to the school, members instigated spontaneous pep rallies in the mall during lunch periods to spark the lethargic school spirit. Initiating another Maryvale first, Key Club presented to the Homecoming Queen a football autographed by the team.

Under the sponsorship of the Maryvale Kiwanis Club, one of Key Club's campaigns for the community was cleaning and repairing Mari-vue Park, setting up benches and putting swing seats and other rides in usable condition.

Boasting the largest active membership on campus, GAA offers to the girls of Maryvale an opportunity to participate in recreational and competition sports and dance activities. Their organizational purpose is to promote interest and participation in girls' sports, to keep the highest ideals of good sportsmanship in mind and to give the girls the chance to make wholesome social contacts.

Through intramural tournaments including archery, basketball, volleyball, softball, badminton, and a track and field meet the girls had an opportunity to earn points. During the year these points accumulated, determining what award she would receive at the Annual Awards Banquet in the spring.

The Girls' Athletic Association's concerns other than sports included a gymnasium slumber party and the Rodeo Dance in March.

Lettermen Assist with Frosh Orientation

In an attempt to score for Maryvale, Coach Kindall leaps for a shot; a Harlem Clown blocks his effort.

Composed of varsity lettermen serving Maryvale High School, especially in matters which pertain to the school's athletic program, M Club seeks to set standards which reflect the best in MHS students.

Supporting and encouraging greater school spirit, members helped run concession stands at sports events and assisted in the freshman orientation.

M Club's most successful project was bringing the Harlem Clowns to Maryvale, the game finishing with a 77-66 defeat of the coaches.

Pantherettes Usher At Plays, Concerts

Pantherettes Kathy Brooks, and Linda Watkins distribute programs to students as part of their service to Maryvale.

Leslie Wing, Carole Bartholomeaux, and Lynda Cottrell join forces with the Kings Club members to advertise and sell the Maryvale Panther License Plates.

Making visitors feel welcome and conveying MHS spirit and friendliness is the goal of the Pantherettes. Composed of nine girls whose desire it is to be of service to school and community, Pantherettes use as their emblem the Panther's head and wear uniforms which are black and gold.

Pantherettes contributed to many MHS activities by their willingness to help people, serving as ushers at plays and music concerts. They also greeted football fans and distributed rosters at MHS games.

Serving as official hostesses at school activities, the girls must exhibit good sportsmanship and be willing to give their time and effort to serving MHS and the student body.

Springtime Brings Library Assistants' State Convention

Book reviews, special reports, guest speakers, and visits to the book bindery, art museums, and other places of interest keep the Maryvale Library Club members active and learning. The member library assistants have joined together in an effort to stimulate a bigger reading interest in the students of Maryvale High and to organize an opportunity for an exchange of ideas with each other and with other library clubs over the state.

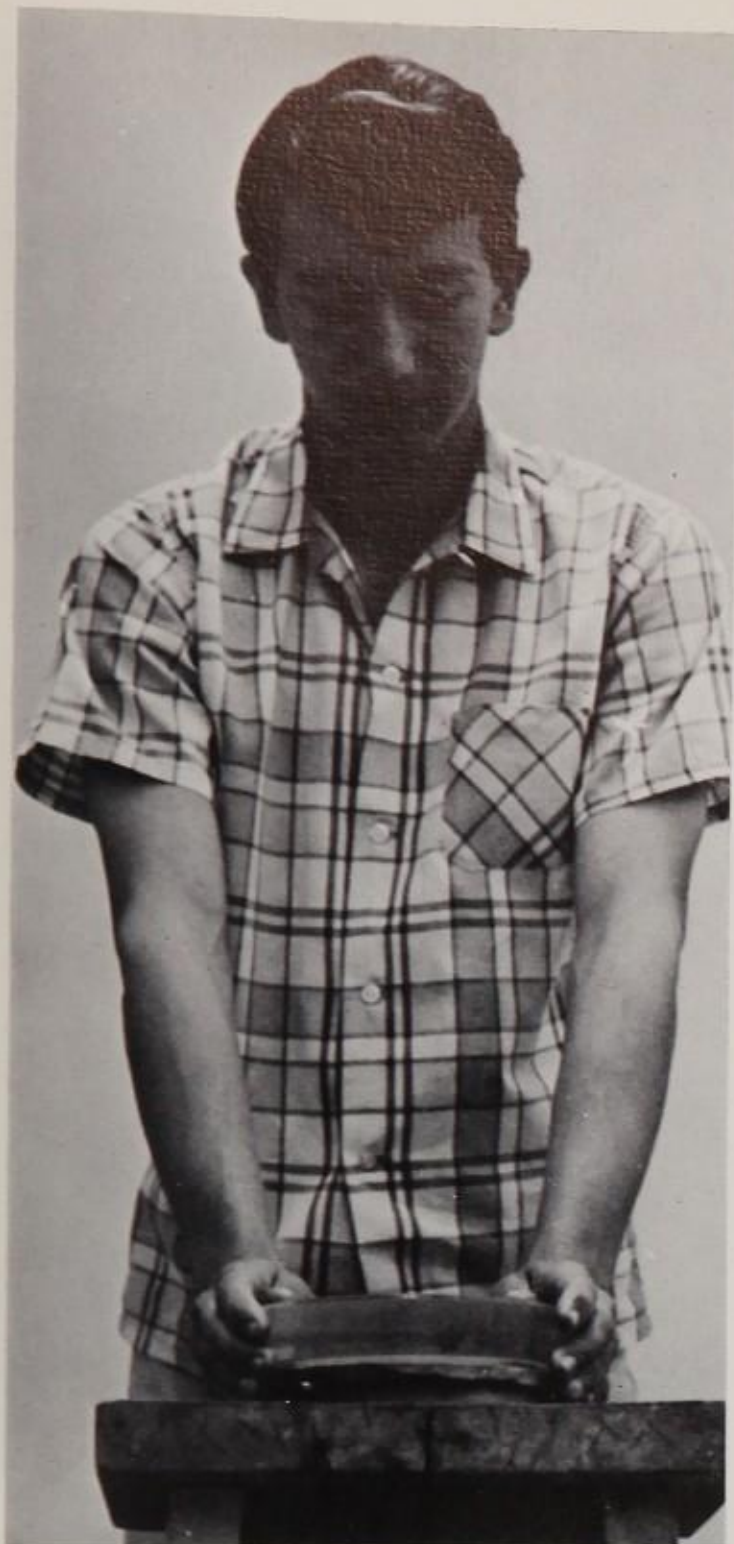

Climaxing the year, the Library Assistants held in Tucson at the University of Arizona in the spring.

Grinding and polishing telescope mirrors, building the telescopes, and sponsoring fund-raising projects kept the Astronomy Club busy this year.

In an attempt to foster an interest in astronomy, the club hoped to encourage the membership to participate in projects through which they may gain a knowledge and an interest in the field.

Field trips to the Phoenix College Observatory, to the ASU Planetarium, and to the Kitt Peak Observatory in Tucson has helped the members accomplish their objectives and broaden their understanding of the field of astronomy. They hoped to visit Lowell Observatory or the Navy Observatory in Flagstaff to round out the year.

Radio Operators Own Station WA7-ETY

WA7-ETY is the call number of Radio Club's newly acquired radio antennae. After making application for Amateur Radio Operator's Licenses, all the members received them and now could use their new antennae.

Before the members could put the antenna to any use, they needed a transmitter, which they constructed themselves, and a receiver which they purchased.

While experimenting with their new set, the club made contact with stations in California and Illinois. The station even has enough power to transmit and receive radio waves out of the United States. One night they did receive from outside of the country and made contact with Canada.

Homemakers Maryvale's Salvation Army

Being mainly a charitable organization this year, Future Homemakers of America were concerned with the needy.

At Christmastime, members made an effort to collect food and clothing for a needy family. FHA gathered enough to prepare a table of turkey, dressing, and all the trimmings for an old-fashioned Christmas dinner.

Other charitable considerations included the Crippled Children's Hospital. To encourage and cheer the children, the Future Homemakers prepared candy favors for their trays.

To climax their year, members attended a state convention in Tucson where they participated in workshops and discussion groups learning how to become better homemakers.

Cadet Teaching New Horizon for FTA

Leslie Wing and Donna Medina prepare posters for the state AAFTA Convention to be held at Maryvale in the spring. The theme is "Education is the Torch that Lights the Way Across the Vast Expanse of Ignorance."

Mr. Robert Bloom, Miss Vicki Hackbarth, and Mr. James Fabian make up a panel which discusses the problems they met as cadet teachers at Maryvale.

To enable the teaching profession to develop selective recruitment programs, to identify capable candidates for teaching and to motivate them to choose appropriate fields of preparation are some of the objectives of the L. E. Burnett Maryvale Chapter of Future Teachers of America. Through guest speakers, films on education, and field trips to Arizona campuses, FTA accomplished its ends. Cadet teaching was an additional opportunity offered juniors and seniors to gain some teaching experience.

For this year, Cecile Tufts was elected state treasurer for the AFTA. She was the first Maryvale student to capture a state office.

Interschchool Bowling Tourneys Initiated

Providing those students who enjoy bowling with an opportunity to bowl and to improve their game is the objective of the MHS Bowling Club. During the first four weeks following the club's formation, members received instructions from professionals working at Bowlero. The club which was initiated four years ago is also a member of the Junior Bowling Congress. Newly instigated this year were interschool matches with other bowling teams in the Phoenix Union High School District. Once a month bowlers vied for championships and trophies.

Photography Club Sells Dance Pictures

Dealing with such strange terms as aperture opening, shutter speeds, and ASA Ratings, the Photography Club tried to give bulb-poppers sufficient competency to enjoy this popular hobby.

Members of the club learned to live with the disappointment of under- and over-exposure, but, occasionally the exposure, the lighting, the composition, the developing and the printing merged to produce a satisfying picture. For a moment the trigger-happy tyros became artists. Besides printing pictures for pleasure, members took orders for dance pictures and sold the prints to the students.

Get-Acquainted Tea Promotes Fellowship

Service to school and community through the promotion of fellowship among high school girls is the purpose of Y-Teens, junior division of the YWCA.

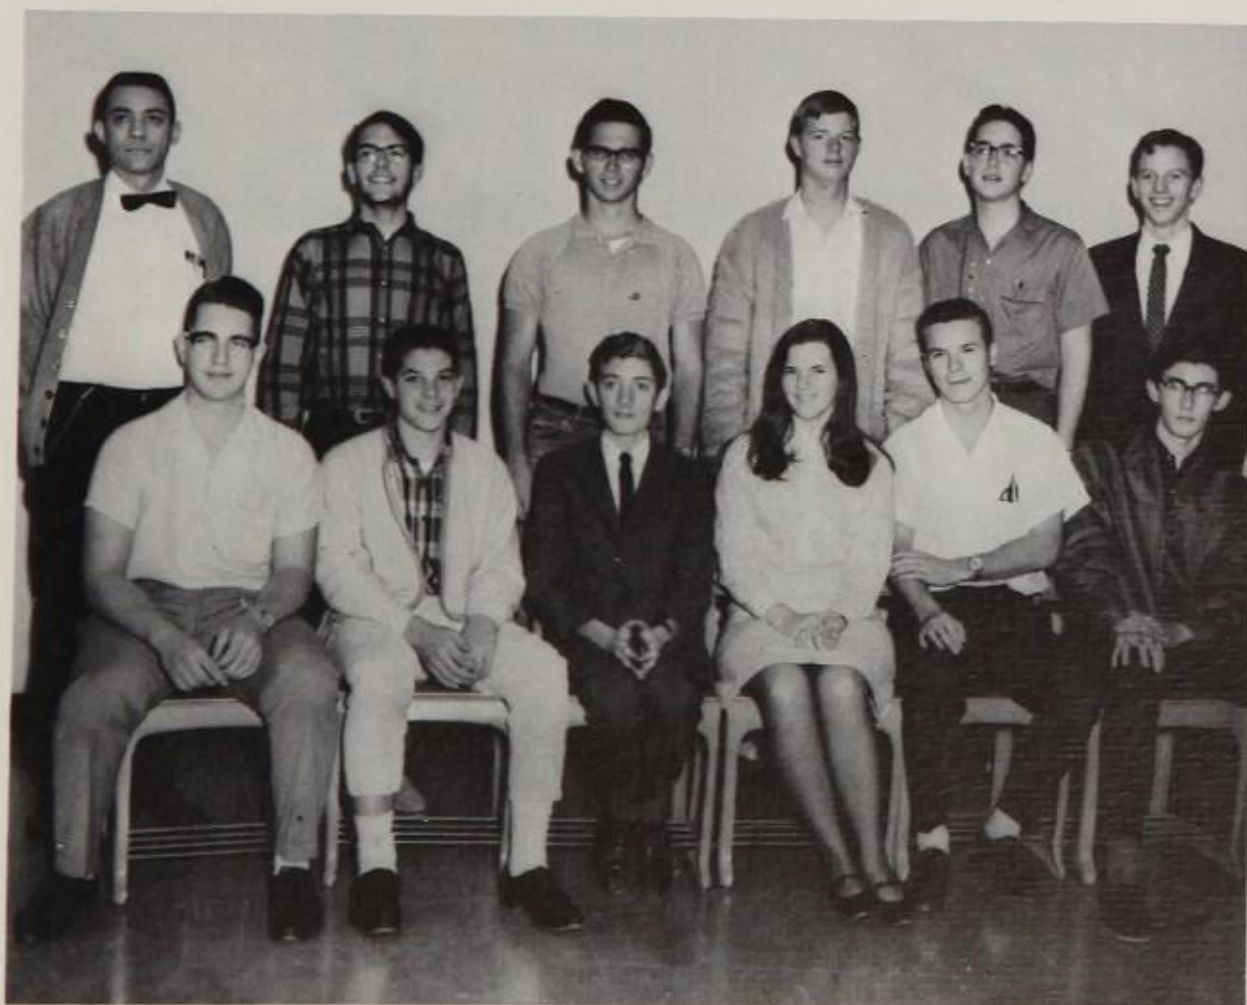

To begin the year, club members attended a get-acquainted tea held at the YWCA. All Phoenix Union High School Y-Teens were invited with discussion groups serving to promote friendship among the various chapters.

To raise funds for club activities, a brownie sale was held with profits supporting a picnic at Encanto Park. After bicycling to the park, members took advantage of the many facilities available, finishing the day with a pack lunch.

Intramural Tournaments Maximize Skills

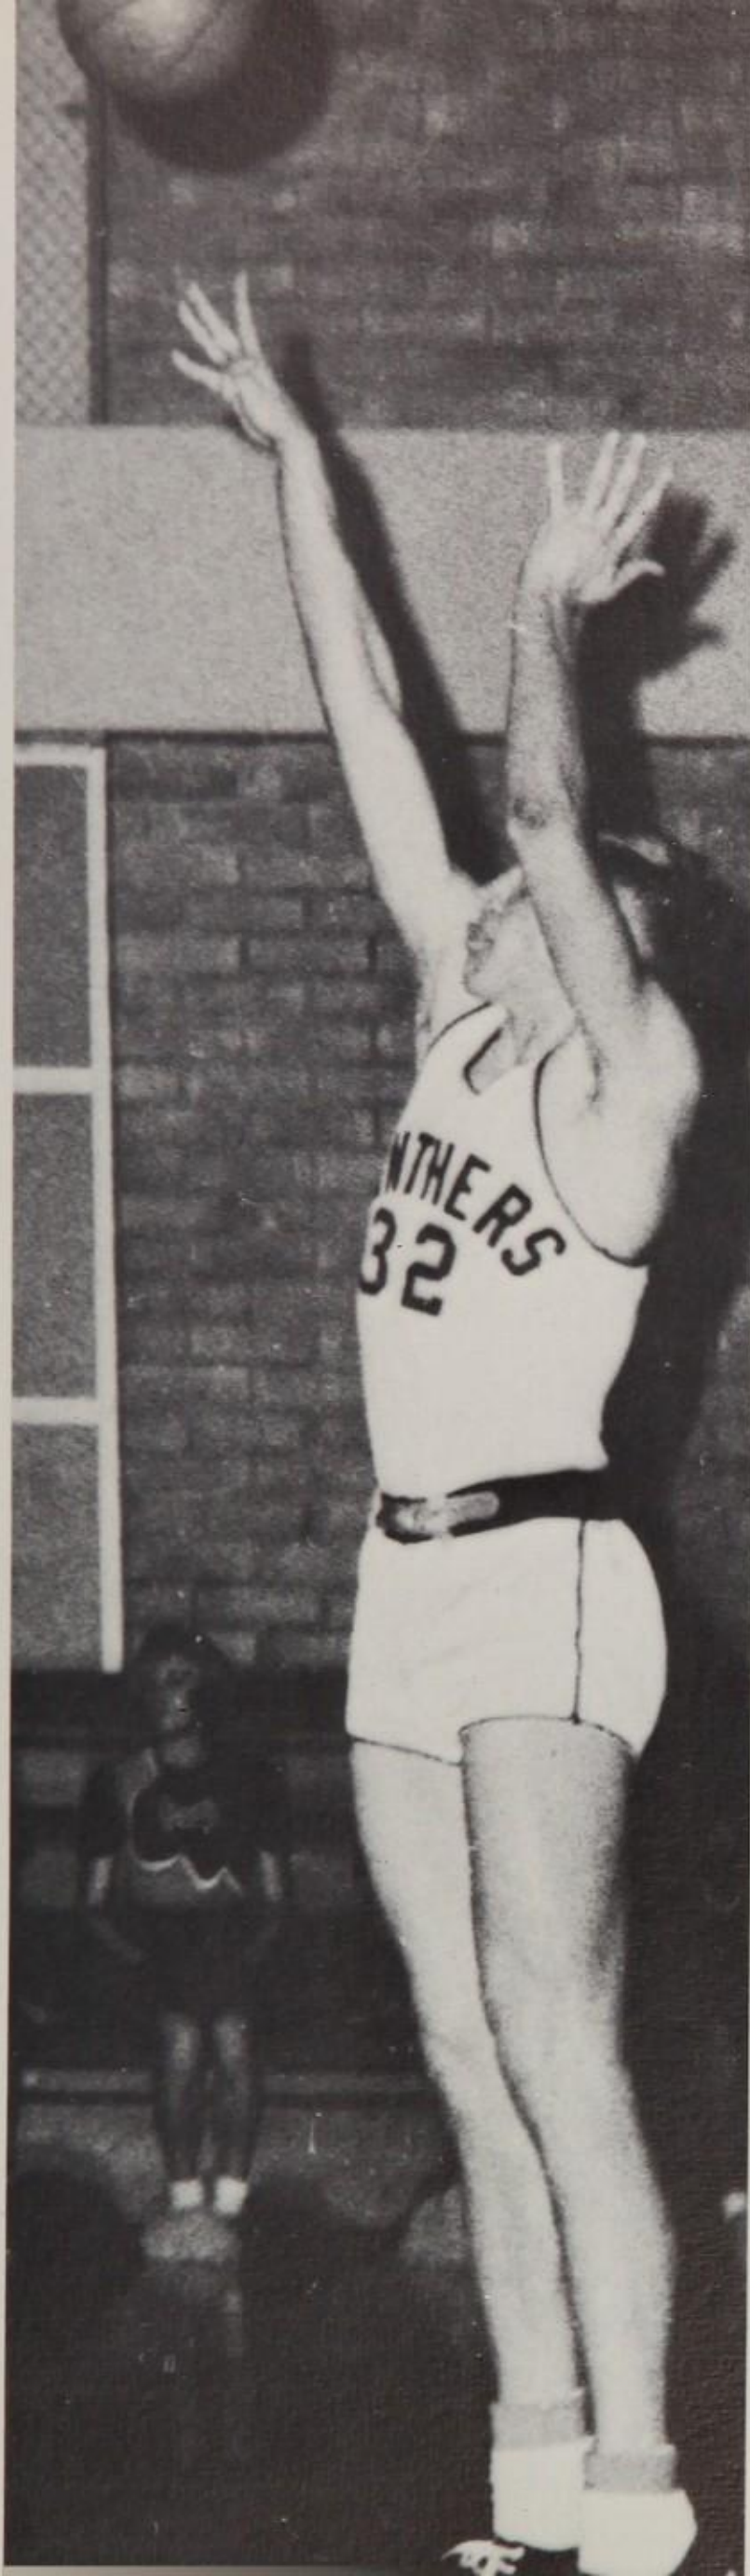

Intramural tournaments, a contest with Alhambra High, and a two team participation in the Arizona State High School Chess Tournament held at South Mountain High were listed among the activities making the year a successful one for the MHS Chess Club. Throughout the year a record of each member's wins and losses was kept and served as a stimulus for improvement.

Under the supervision of Mr. Hiram Snodgrass, club members sought to further their goal of good sportsmanship and fellowship in all activities as well as the promotion of chess.

7-2-1 Record

Tailback Mitch Johnson (40) gallops head on into a Phoenix Union defense player.

The Panthers opened up the 1965 football season by losing to the Westwood Warriors 12-13. Maryvale earned two touchdowns, but failed to collect the extra points which proved to be the decisive factor. Despite the loss, the Cats displayed good power, both offensively and defensively. Blocking a Westwood punt, the Panther gained possession of the ball on the Warrior 13 yard line. From this point, Marty Imsland lofted a pass to Roger Lange in the end zone. Again in the same way, Imsland and Bob Yeats combined to complete the Panther scoring.

A 32 yard touchdown pass from Marty Imsland to Mike Bolen was all the Cats needed to upset the Mustangs 22-0. Imsland looped a three yard pass to Bob Yeats for the final Panther touchdown.

Panther runners smashed through the Carl Hayden defense, picking up a total of 313 yards and five touchdowns as they walloped the Falcons 35-0. The Panther attack was highlighted by the performances of Mitch Johnson and Frank Cranley with Johnson carrying a 76 yard touchdown from scrimmage and Cranley churning up 110 yards plus two touchdown runs.

Marty Imsland's three yard pass to Bob Yeats in the end zone and Kenny Williams' boot between the uprights assured a 14-14 tie between the Panthers and the Pueblo Warriors, a team that Maryvale plays every year though she isn't in the division.

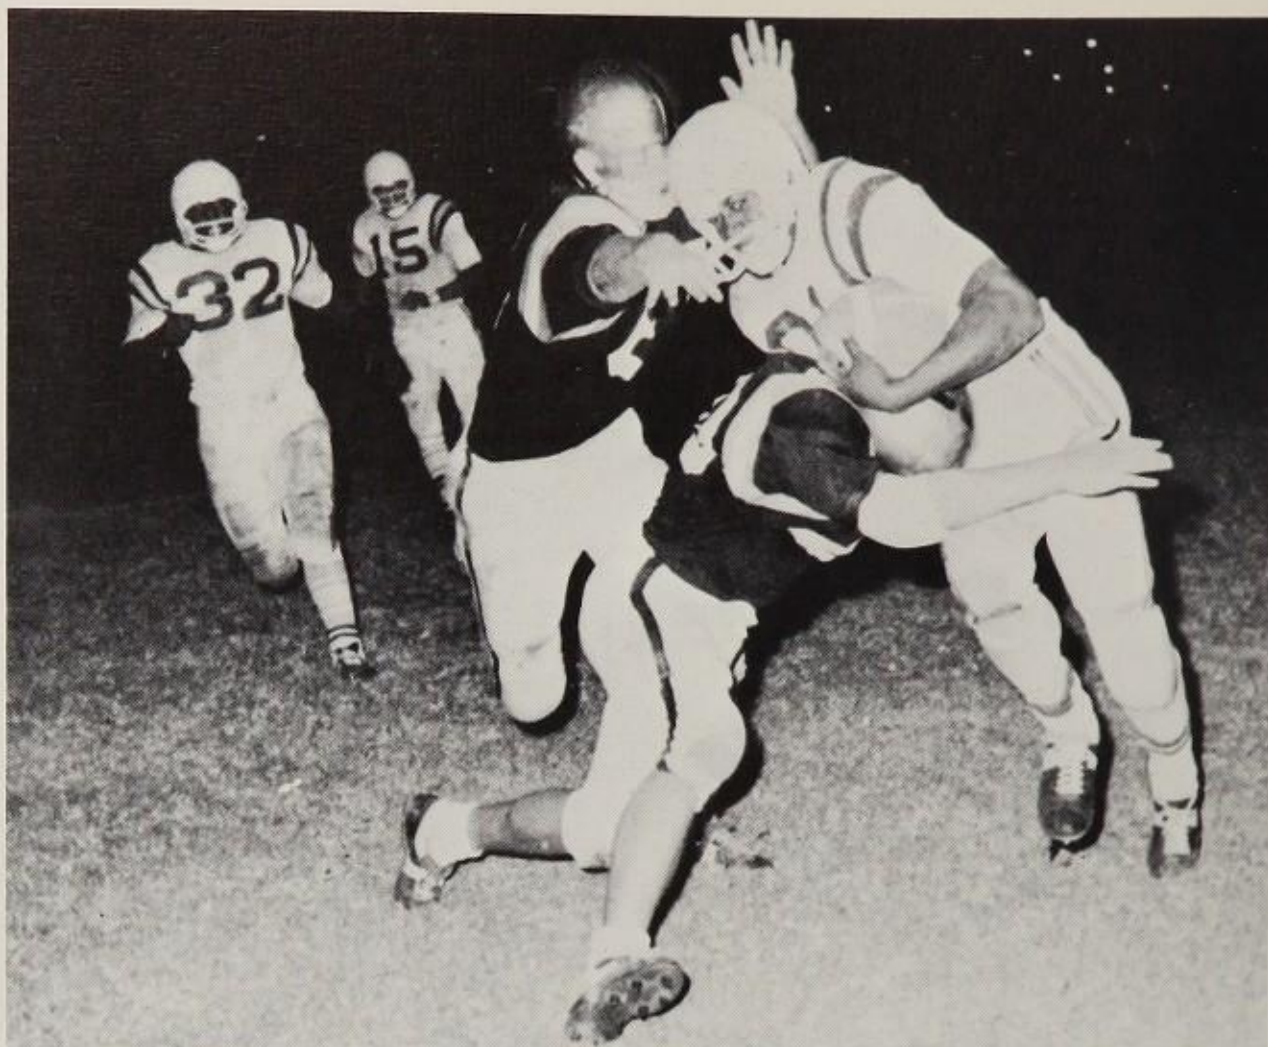

The strong Panther defensive unit allowed only one Central touchdown, while the alert offense collected five as Maryvale cruised to a 33-7 conquest of the Bobcats. The entire first half of the contest was dominated by the Black and Gold with Kenny Williams sparking the team to 27 points. The following half saw Mitch Johnson scoring the last touchdown.

Maryvale Celebrated its homecoming as Marty Imsland and Kenny Williams combined quarterbacking talents to lead the Panthers to a crucial 14-7 triumph over the Alhambra Lions. A blocked punt by Jon Phillips gave Maryvale possession of the ball on the Lion 25. Phillips battled his way to the one, and from there, Mitch Johnson hit paydirt.

Panthers Route Coyotes, Capture Title

Camelback spoiled Maryvale's bid for a perfect 8-0 divisional record by scoring two first period touchdowns and going on to outdistance the Panthers 20-13. The Spartans snatched an early lead with a 77 yard touchdown pass on the first play from scrimmage. With two seconds remaining in the half, Mitch Johnson snatched a Camelback pass on the Panther 15 yard line, and streaked down the remaining length of the field scoring for the Black and Gold.

Maryvale's defense capitalized three times on South Mountain errors to lead the Panthers to a 28-6 conquest over the Rebels. The Panthers posted the first score set up after Bob Yeats pounced on a fumbled ball at South's own 34 yard line. Late in the third period, the Black and Gold scored their second six pointer after Frank Cranley fell on a loose ball at the Rebel 21.

Panther gridgers scored once in the opening minutes of the game, twice during the second period, and again with 53 seconds remaining in the contest to set West back 25-7.

Mike Terry's one yard touchdown dive into the Phoenix Union end zone was all the Black and Gold needed as they routed the Coyotes 27-0 in the regular season finale to capture their first divisional title. A host of Black and Gold jerseys blocked a Union punt on the four yard line. On the following play, Bill Garman carried it across for paydirt. Yeats received a six yard pass from Marty Imsland late in the fourth quarter to round off the scoring.

Panther defenders, contributing largely to Maryvale's 3AA championship, are shown overpowering a Camelback opponent for no gain.

With determination and spirit, tailback Mitch Johnson refuses to let an opponent stop him in his run for yardage.

With two West tacklers close behind, Quarterback Kenny Williams drives ahead with unleashed energy.

Even though surrounded by antagonist of a rival team, quarterback Marty Imsland does not falter in his efforts for Maryvale.

Sideline Reacts to Semi-Finals Action

Line play gets rough as the Panthers vie with Tucson High for the state finals.

Head Coach Carl Rollins shows concern and determination as he watches his team.

At a rain soaked University of Arizona Stadium, the Panthers fought impressively but futilely against Tucson High, the eventual state champion. The Panthers dropped the semi-championship game 26-7.

A crowd of school-spirited Panthers remained throughout the constant drizzle of rain in a hopeful attempt of boosting the Black and Gold to victory.

Marty Imsland displayed his best aerial attack of the year. He completed 16 of 25 passes for a total of 221 yards. His chief targets were Dale Bauman and Bob Yeats.

Tucson lead 7-0 before MHS tied the score late in the first period on a 16 yard run by Frank Cranley, and a conversion by Kenny Williams.

The apparently empty stands watch as a swarm of Maryvale players block a Tucson kick.

Gang tackles and hard runners add up to a hard fought game in which both teams get their share of business.

Junior Varsity Players Gain Gridiron Experience

The combined coaching of Mr. Don Cline and Mr. Cecil Walker piloted the Junior Varsity Panthers to a successful 5-4-1 seasonal record. The team rapidly became more familiar with the various techniques involved in football and was able to skillfully apply them.

Among the outstanding players were sophomore Mike Quijada, a good prospect for next year's quarterback on the varsity squad.

Art and Bob Caughlan, leading ground gainers, played an important role also. There are several others, who will also be moved to the varsity roster next year.

Maryvale's Freshman gridders, coached by Mr. Howard Powers suffered defeat in three of their first four outs, but encountered less resistance in the second half of the season. Their record finally evened at a satisfactory four wins and four defeats.

The Panthers performed impressively throughout the eight game season. Their worst setback was by a two touchdown margin. The three other losses were by seven points or less.

The Frosh enjoyed victories again from two to four touchdowns. Their biggest triumph was a 33-7 trouncing of West.

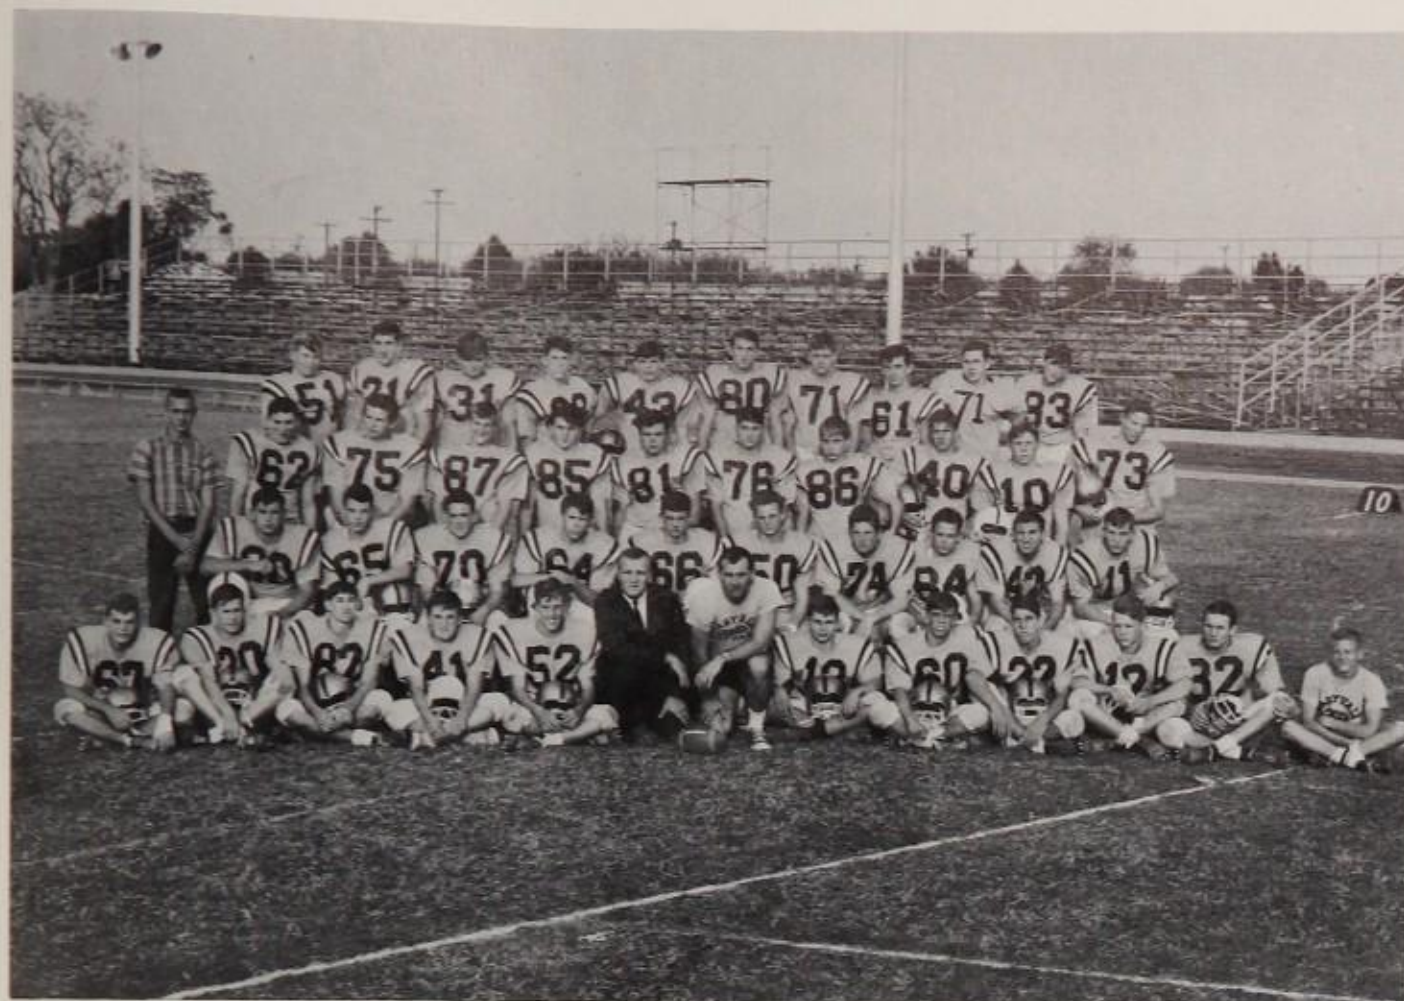

Maryvale's lightweight football, coached by Mr. Hicks, finished its season with a disappointing 2-6 record. The Panthers, with a somewhat weak defense, won both games by shutouts. They blanked North 12-0, and overwhelmed Camelback 35-0.

MHS Marathonites

Coach Harold Jackson, in his first year at Maryvale High School, piloted the varsity, junior varsity, and freshmen cross country teams to their most prosperous seasons.

The varsity, behind the leadership of Dave Mata, captain, and Ken Gray, co-captain, equaled last year's seasonal record with an eminent seven wins and two defeats. The two setbacks were a result of the hard running of Central and Phoenix Union, the state champion. Due to the Phoenix Union loss, Maryvale was forced to accept second perch in the division.

The Panthers netted second place in the city with 65 points. Again they rejected first place by Phoenix Union. The meet took place Nov. 24 at Papago Park. Richard Rogers, who pocketed ninth place, was first to finish for Maryvale. He was trailed by Rick Merwin, who finished tenth. Mike Steinbaugh snatched the 13 position, followed by Greg Hancock, 16 and Kenny Gray, 17.

Dec. 3 at Papago Park marked the time and place of the state meet. Among 18 schools involved, Maryvale bagged 172 points to obtain fourth place. The Panthers were bested by only Phoenix Union, Sunnyslope, and Pueblo. There were in the area of 200 runners and all of Maryvale's five scorers were among the first 50 to cross the line.

Although Maryvale's Junior Varsity cross country team was victimized by Glendale, Central and Phoenix Union, the Panthers experienced a fine season. They were triumphant in six other meets.

Two of their three letdowns were by differences of three points. The other however was a severe thrashing from Phoenix Union. Most of the Black and Gold victories were by wide scores, except for a thin 25-29 win over South Mountain.

Last call Freshmen. These words conveyed excitement into the hearts of the cross country, as they moved towards the starting line to begin their first one mile journey in high school competition. Bang! With the sound of the gun, they were off and running to a perfect 9-0 divisional championship. The Panthers bagged the title with a narrow 25-31 margin over the Phoenix Union Frosh.

The team's success this year is in part due to the growing support given to the sport. Mrs. Brims, the school nurse, was one of the most faithful advocates of cross country from its beginning at Maryvale.

The state meet begins with a bang, as Rick Merwin and Greg Hancock run well for Maryvale. Both boys placed high in the meet at Papago Park. Richard Rogers runs with an undisputed control of second place in the novice race at Thunderbird Park. Rogers won a medal for finishing second.

Heavyweights Kirby Biddlecome and Joe Lugo prepare for combat in the feature wrestling event at Alhambra. Biddlecome was setback 7-4.

The Black and Gold varsity grapplers rolled away the mat for 1965-66 after completing the most successful year of wrestling at Maryvale.

Coach Clubine paved the way as the Panthers followed through with nine out of ten victories in dual competition, a second place divisional termination, and a share of third position in the state.

Ralph Destrini, Mike Steinbaugh, Tony Dowell, Bill Garman, Mitch Johnson, Tim Carman, John Johnson, Gary Coley, and Kirby Biddlecome advanced to the state meet which took place Feb. 18-19 at Phoenix Union High School, and consisted of 29 teams. The Panthers collected 39 points to tie Palo Verde for third place.

Tim Carman became Maryvale's first state wrestling champion by decisioning his opponent 6-4 in the finals, and Mike Steinbaugh had to settle for second place in his weight category when he lost 3-0 to end his bid for the crown. John Johnson slipped into fourth place after missing a chance for third with a 4-1 topple.

Eighteen teams assembled Feb. 10-12 at Alhambra High School to participate in the divisional meet. Maryvale scored 79 points to acquire second place.

Tony Dowell, the only undefeated Panther in dual competition, won the championship in his 127 pound bracket by winning three decisions, 6-0, 7-3, and 7-3. 145 pounder Tim Carman earned the title with 14-0 and 13-0 whitewashings and a pin. At 154 pounds, John Johnson became champ with a pin, and victories of 5-4 and 4-0.

Heavyweight Kirby Biddlecome triumphed 3-0, and won by a fall, but dropped the championship match for a second place standing.

Ralph Destrini, Bill Garman, Mitch Johnson, and Gary Coley each conquered third place with 3-1 records while Mike Steinbaugh was master twice to obtain fourth.

Tim Carman Wins State Championship

"The one word that best describes this team is desire. They wanted to wrestle. They wanted to win. They did both," asserted head coach Chuck Clubine.

Noticeably proud, the usually taciturn mentor becomes quite talkative when reflecting on the wrestling team and its record.

"It has to be a team effort. Our overall balance gave us our 9-1 dual match record. I could always depend on every man on the team to give a 100 per cent effort whether it was in practice or on the mat."

"The explanation for Tim Carman's success lies in this same mental attitude and competitive spirit. In fact, he was the epitome of it. Tim and Mike Steinbaugh both overcame physical liabilities to become superior wrestlers. This wrestling season has been a most gratifying experience," he concluded.

Under the direction of Coach Kenneth Stites, the Black and Gold Junior Varsity matmen continued down the victory road by winning three of their four remaining encounters, and closing the season with a 5-4-2 record.

Highlights of the season occurred when the little Panthers overpowered Phoenix Union 44-10, smothered Cortez 35-9, and rounted North 32-18.

The J.V. grapplers suffered their worst defeats from Alhambra 13-38, South 14-30, Carl Hayden 14-30.

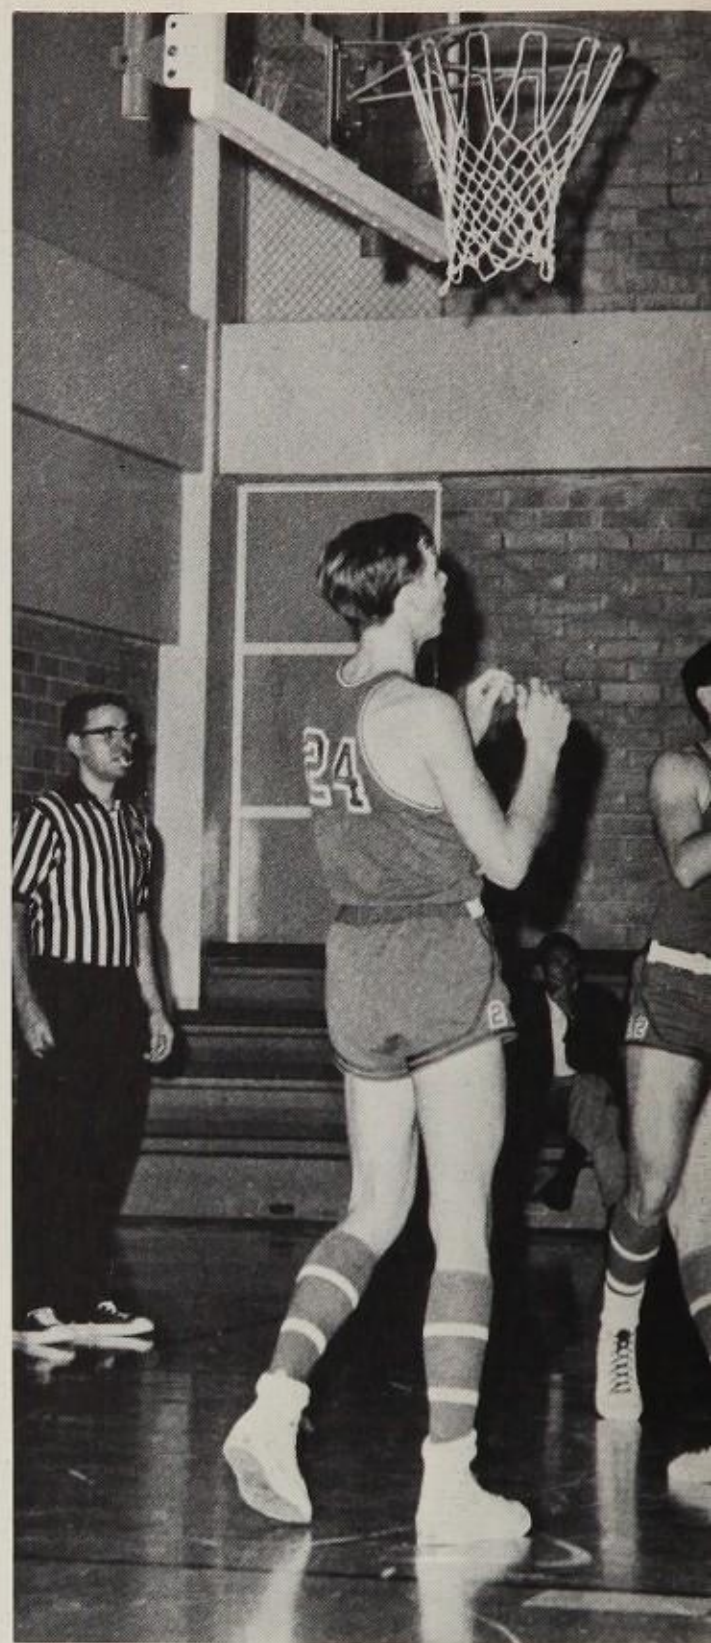

The outstanding J.V. wrestlers were David Dobash, Bill Sturgeon, Jerry Kullos, and Mark Johnson. 158 pound Dobash enjoyed a perfect 8-0 record. Sturgeon suffered defeat only once while compiling nine victories. Injury riddled Jerry Kullos, wrestling at 165 pounds, won six and lost one, and 135 pound Mark Johnson finished the season with an 8-5 record.

Hampered by inexperience, the Panther-five underwent another disappointing season with a 4-14 record. Head Coach Jerry Waugh believes his team, with the experience gained this year, will perform with a much better result in 1966-67.

Seniors Marty Imsland and Bob Yeats were the only Panthers who had played varsity basketball prior to this year. Juniors Kenny Hansen, Jim Campbell, and Tom Richards comprised the remainder of the starting lineup.

Backing them up were Pete Babcock, Dale Bauman, Dennis Compton, Steve Matherly, and John Ryder, all juniors. Larry Linebarger and Kenny Williams were the other two senior members of the squad.

Kenny Hansen, who played consistently throughout the season, led the Panthers scoring with 217 points, and an average of 12 points per game. Hansen gained a considerable amount of experience and will be one of the Black and Gold's leading figures next year when they will hopefully shoot for a winning season. Hansen shined in the Cat's 73-54 jolting of Tucson. He also paced the Panther attacks against Alhambra when they defeated the Lions 49-33 in the two teams first encounter and 62-54 in their return clash later in the year.

Hansen also was the big scorer when Maryvale trimmed Carl Hayden 54-53.

Jim Campbell scored highly in the second half of the season to edge veteran Bob Yeats by two points. Campbell collected a total of 157 points. Tom Richards was the only starter who scored less than 100 points.

Kesler seized Panther scoring honors by accumulating 193 points. Bassa followed closely with 179. Jimmy Yee netted 142 points for third place, while Mike Clupper trailed with 135. Jim Carruthers contributed 117 points to round out the leading scorers.

Back again this year for the Maryvale boys tennis team were Jim Scofield, Bob Walker, and Bryan Wilson. Other members of the team were Bob Allen and Jon Borin, both of whom advanced from last year's junior varsity.

Mr. Harmon Unkrich, new to the Maryvale coaching staff, hoped to make his first year a big year. Bob Allen rapidly moved up the ladder into first place, but received strong competition from his varsity cohorts.

Ray Segerman remained at the top of the junior varsity ladder most of the season. He was followed by Don Scott, John Wilson, and Bob Oless.

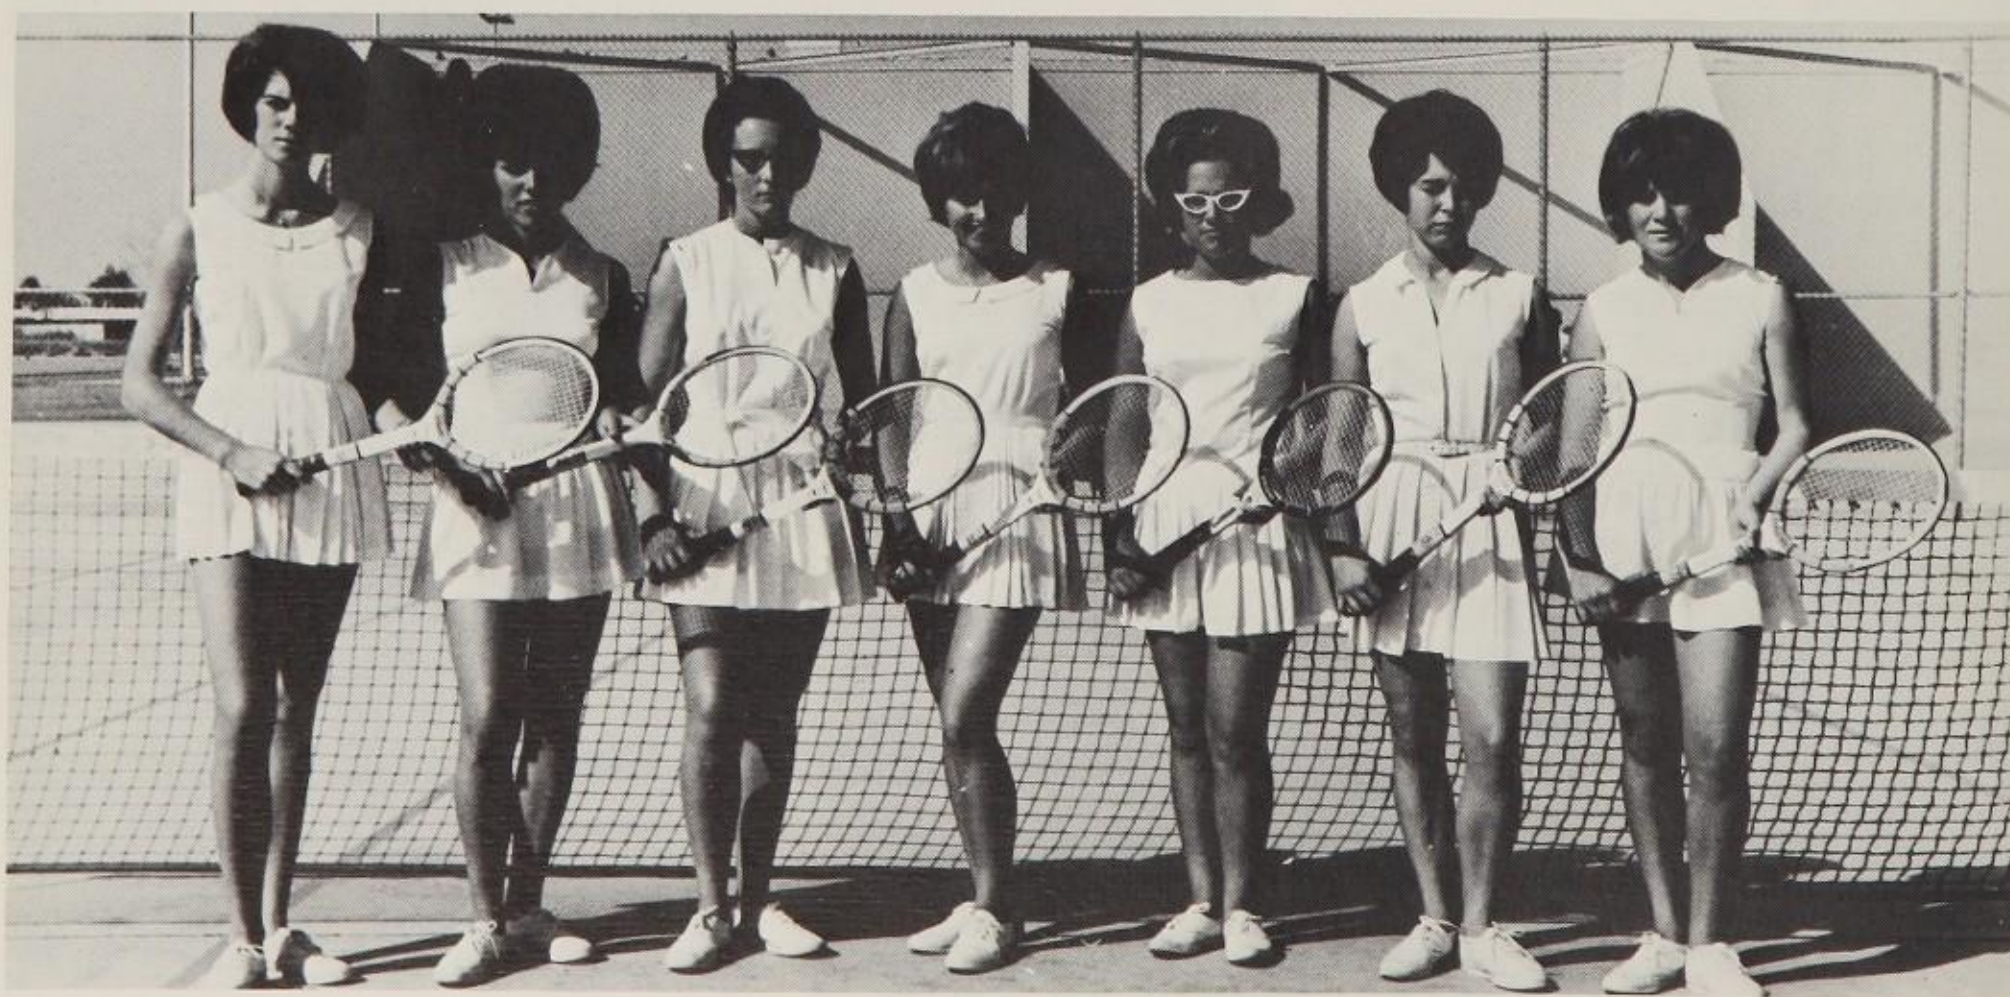

Mr. George Stanley, also new at coaching Maryvale tennis, practiced with the team after school and during weekends to ready them for opposing teams.

Tennis Champion Clayton Imparts Winning Instruction

Receiving top notch training from Mrs. Dorothy Clayton, a champion tennis player, the Maryvale varsity, junior varsity, and freshman girls tennis teams were confident of achieving triumphant seasons. Previous experience by the varsity and junior varsity players was a large asset to both teams.

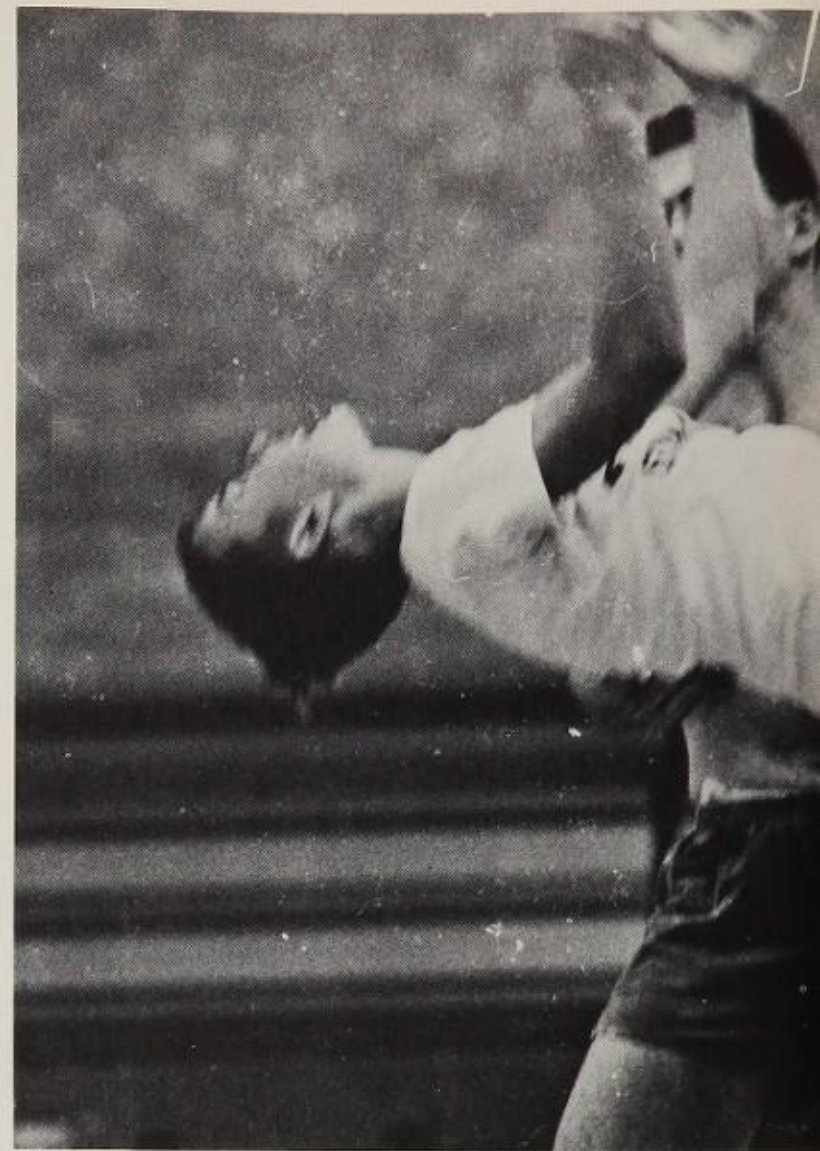

Lead by team captain Cathy Barker, the Varsity girls won four of their first five matches. A 4-3 loss to Central was the first time the varsity girls scored against the Bobcats. The junior varsity began the season by winning four straight games including a 7-0 blanking of Central.

Gymnasts Need

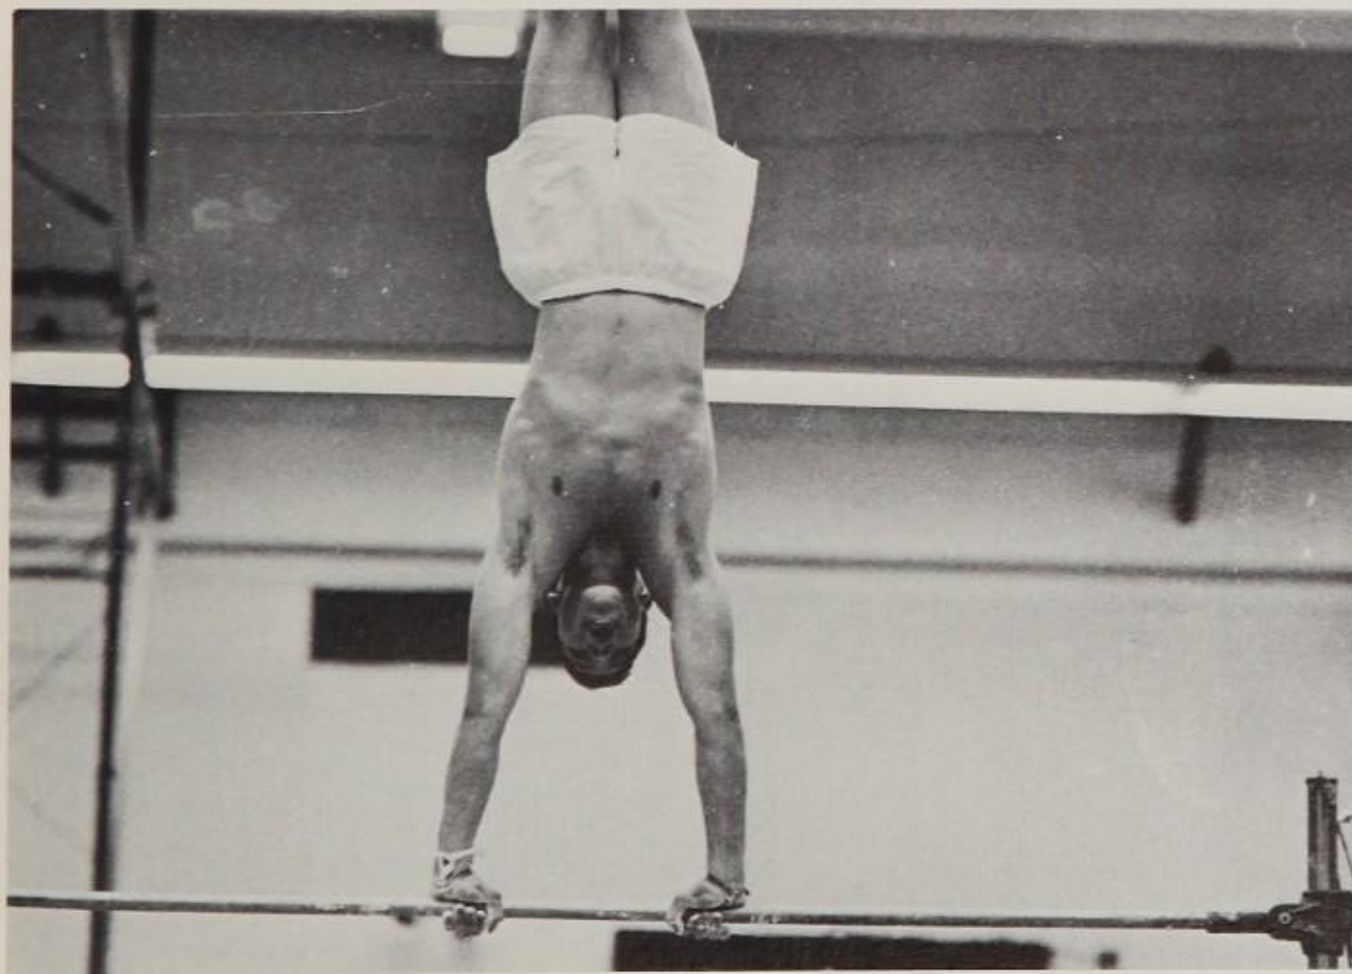

Dave Andrade strenuously performs the cross, a difficult technique on the still rings.

Mark Aramian does a handstand on the still rings.

Bob Hart works on the side horse, one of the most difficult events of a gymnast meet.

Strength, Endurance For Routine Work

A handstand on the high bar is the specialty of gymnast Jack Payne.

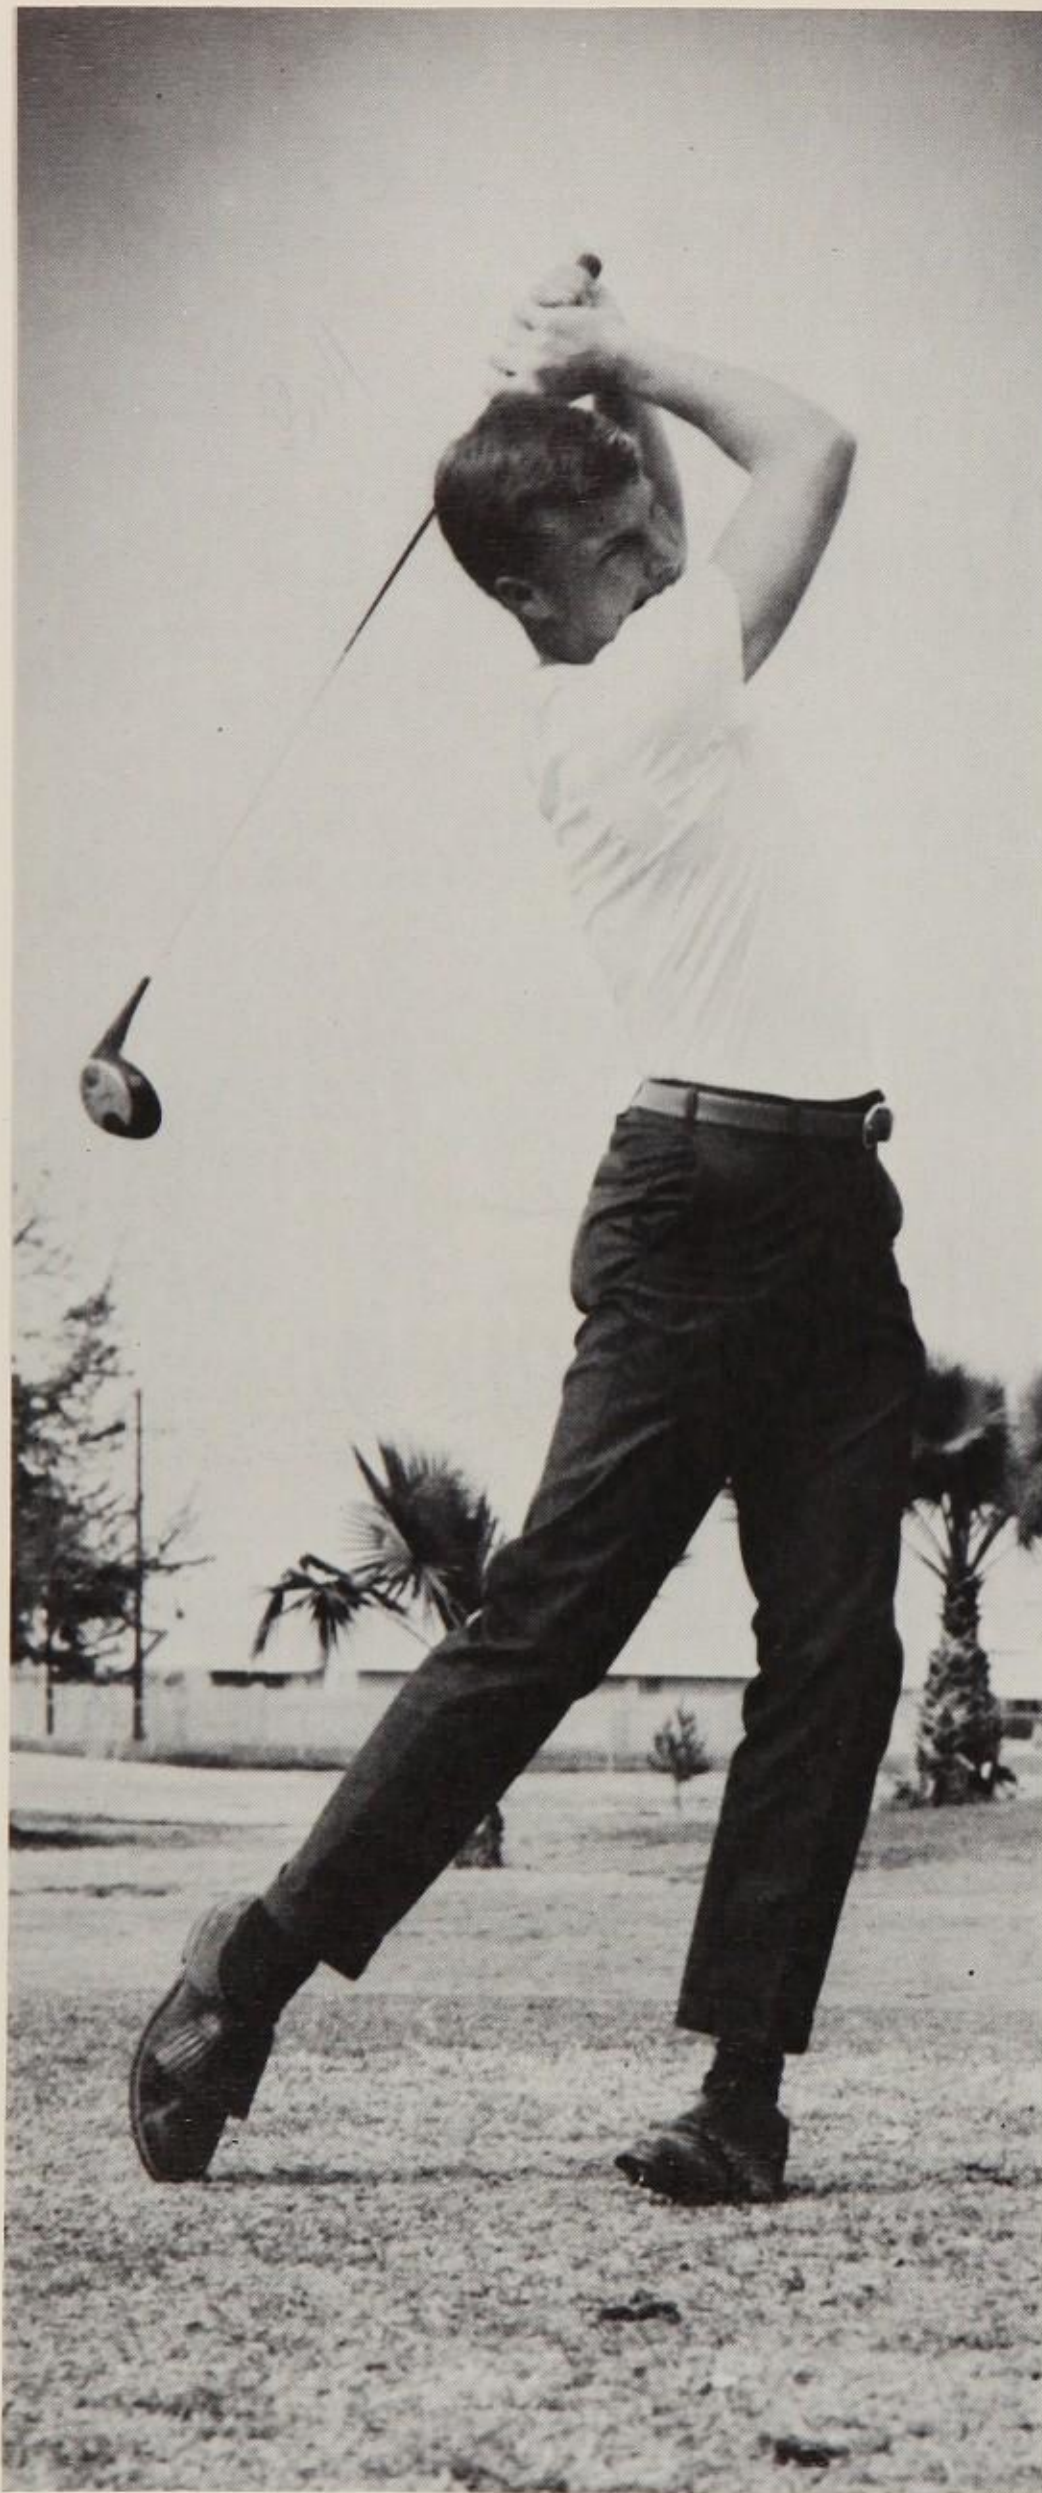

With a ripple of biceps, deltoids, and various other muscles, Maryvale gymnasts competed on the high bar, parallel bars, still rings, side horse, tumbling, and in many other forms.

Although the gymnasts follow a Junior Varsity schedule, their routines require strength, endurance and precision. Each contestant is judged on both his form and the difficulty of his routine. Team scores are based on the places won by each team, with first place scoring the most points and fourth place scoring the least.

In his first year at Maryvale, Coach Dave Carpenter built a solid team in all categories. His charge spent long, arduous hours practicing to perfect their routines.

Gymnastics continues to grow in popularity both nationally and here at Maryvale. More teams are being organized in the district each year.

Linksters Change to Medal Matches

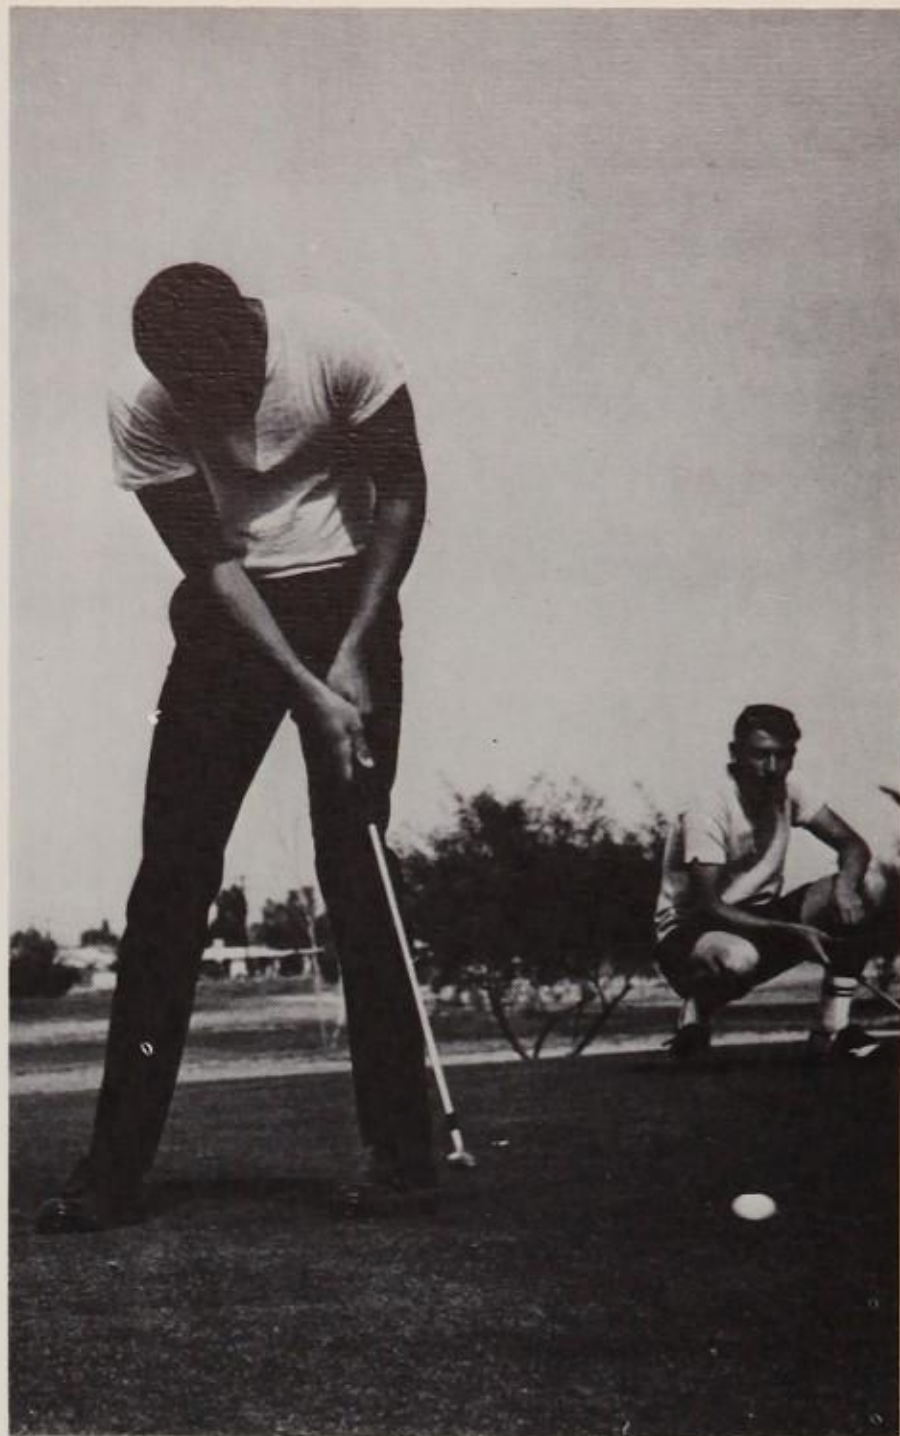

Larry Feil follows through with his swing on the first tee at Maryvale Golf Course. Larry rolled in a par on the 350 yard fairway.

Varsity golfer Mike Motte lines up a putt on the second green, before he puts it in for a par. Larry Feil, Dave Engelking, and an unidentified Alhambra golfer walk towards the green after teeing off.

Steve Tipton jokes with his Alhambra rival as they walk toward the spot where the golf ball landed after the first tee.

Larry Feil putts from about twelve feet out while Dave Engelking watches and waits for his turn.

Led by returning lettermen Larry Feil and Mike Motte and long-knocker David Engleking, Coach Vea Geiler's linksmen figured to have a good year.

Pushing the three seniors for starting positions on the five-man team were sophomores Bill Contine, Roger Hughes, Bob Schwartz, and Doug Pool. If these younger swingers develop as expected over the coming two years, Maryvale could prove tough in the next two seasons.

This year all teams compete on a medal play basis when the team with the least number of strokes wins instead of the match play when the team with the most holes won gets the victory. Golf Pro Nelson Tooker of Maryvale Golf Course where the team practices, assists Coach Geiler with the team.

Mr. Pilch, also a football coach, took over the duty of instructing the varsity trackmen with hopes of leading them to a victorious season. The Cats made tracks in that direction by thrashing South Mountain 80-47 in the season opener at Maryvale.

In each event the Black and Gold cindermen displayed much speed, stamina, and coordination, three important factors for a winning team.

Apprentice Cheerleaders Excite Crowds

In charge of the junior varsity poms and cheers, Miss Connie Crumb teaches them new cheering and dancing techniques.

Miss Norma Price, varsity poms and cheers sponsor, works long hours to help the girls prepare for their performances.

Where the team action is: that is where you will find the cheerleaders. Whether it is in the rain at Tucson or in the Maryvale gym during a basketball game, the "cheers" are always there, supporting the team and urging the student body to participate in the excitement with them.

Cheerleaders were charged with responsibility of maintaining not only school spirit but also the cheering level at the games.

Working continuously throughout the year, the MHS Pom Pon girls presented various dance routines and drills to music such as "Let's Dance," "Swinging Safari," and "Adams Family." These routines aided the cheerleaders in the promotion of greater school spirit, served to liven interest in games and provide entertainment for Panther fans during halftime activities.

Two Glass Bulletin Boards Presented to Student Body

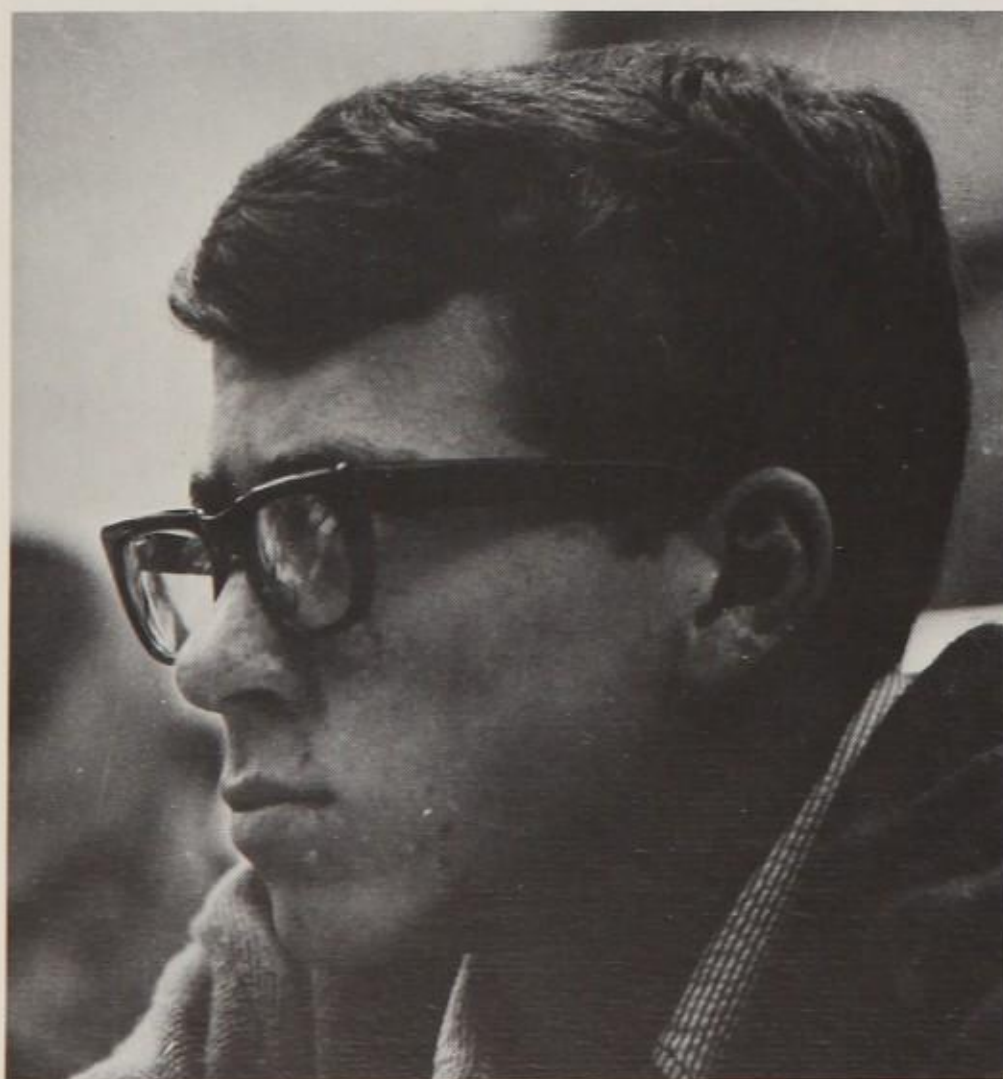

Tim Carman, president, expresses himself at one of the weekly council meetings.

Giving her report on the dues so far collected is Yvonne La Forest.

Four years of learning and experiencing culminated June 10, 1966, when the first four year graduating class of MHS accepted their diplomas and departed. These seniors engaged in many various activities including two dances, "Back in the Swing" and "007" and a sale of class pins. This year they also continued the tradition of leaving a senior gift to the school by giving two glass bulletin boards.

On May 30, The Scottsdale Country Club was the site of the Senior Ditch Day. Hundreds of seniors participated in various activities among which were swimming, playing athletic games, and eating. The other exclusive senior event was the Senior Banquet at the Camelback Inn.

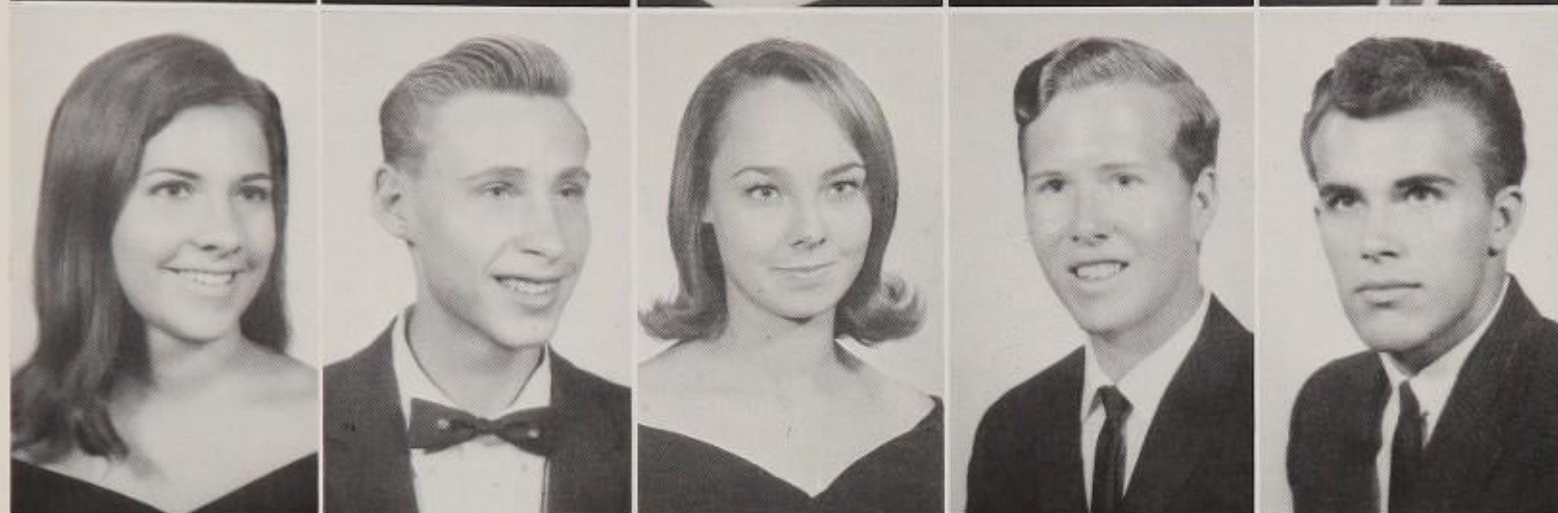

Looking somewhat serious, vice-president Marc Aramian, meditates upon a point of discussion.

Patty Miles, secretary, looks up for a moment as she takes the class meeting minutes.

Juniors Raise Enthusiasm Through Sale Of Badges, "Ollie Octopi"

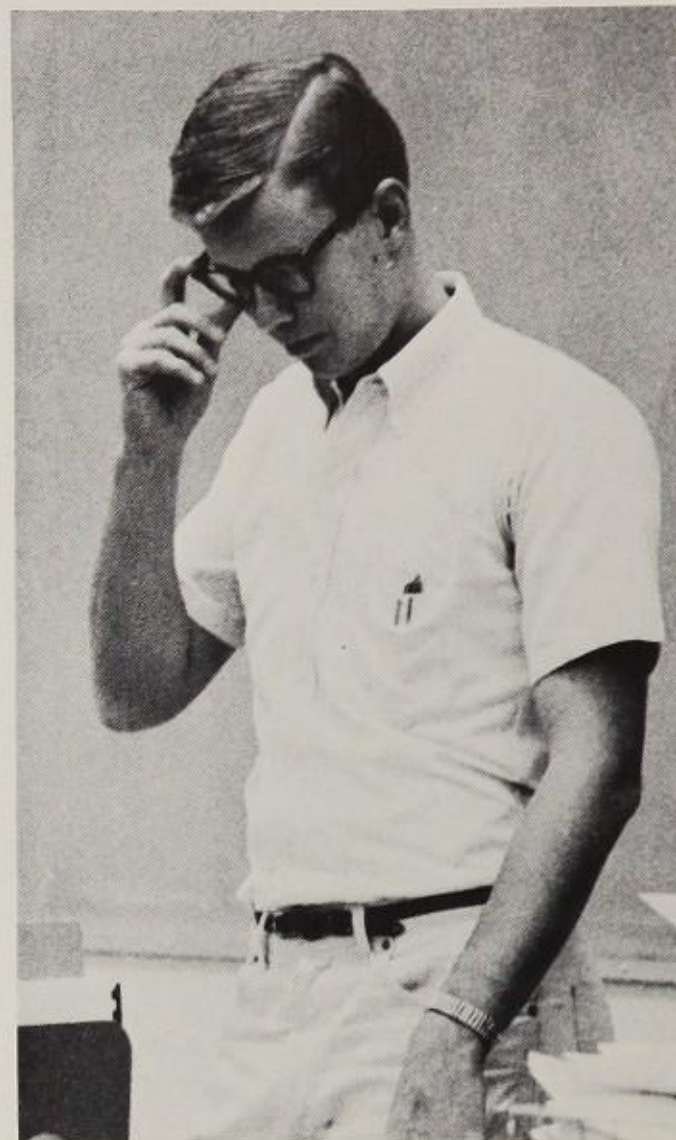

"Bring your sweetheart to the Valentine's Dance," was the chant echoed by the Junior Class during the week of February 7. Each year the Junior Class is responsible for the Valentine's Dance which usually terminates the basketball season. Besides sponsoring this and other dances, the class also earned money by having two car washes.

The Junior Class did their part to increase school spirit through the selling of spirit badges and "Ollie Octopi," miniature black and gold octopi made from yarn.

Much of this year was spent with preparation for the annual Junior-Senior Prom. Through the groundwork laid by the various committees, many relative tasks were accomplished assuring the success of the Prom.

Connie Ward gives her weekly treasurer's report.

Pondering a point before he speaks, Bud Gammill, president, prepares to discuss prom preparations.

Vice-president Gail Vredenburg proposes a money earning project to the council.

Writing hastily, Terry Twentier, secretary, takes minutes of the meeting.

Victory Balloons Fill Sky As Sophomores Lift Spirit At Championship Play-off

The sometimes inferior connotation of the word sophomore could hardly have been applied to this year's Sophomore Class. Headed by their four elected officers, the class sponsored a car wash and a "Last Chance Dance."

At Homecoming the sophomores represented the Roman Era. A portion of their skit was the bearing of the president, Bruce Jennings, upon a litter in typical Caesar fashion. Another variation was added to a football game by the sophomore class as they sold helium filled balloons to promote school enthusiasm. These lighter than air spirit symbols acted somewhat as harbingers of victory as this was the game which cinched the division three title for Maryvale.

Having an open council was one aspect that the sophomores prided themselves upon. Any responsible sophomore was free to attend any of the meetings and offer suggestions.

Taking notes as reminders, Bruce Jennings, president, leads a meeting.

Kathy Woodson, secretary, watches attentively as she takes minutes.

Counting the money in the treasury, Toni Milligan totals the amount. Laurie Barrett, vice-president makes plans for coming events.

In the absence of the president, Susan Nanashe, vice-president, conducts the meeting.

Frosh Officers Spearhead Washes, "Birthday" Dance

Since its beginning, MHS has never been lacking in its number of freshmen. This year was no exception as over 900 underclassmen invaded the campus. These newly orientated students who were at first filled with much apprehension found that their phobias were quickly diminished as their class gained organization. The initiation of this unifying process was made by the class sponsors, Mr. Kish and Mrs. Peace who prepared the class for election of officers. These officers spearheaded the class of '69 to such events as two car washes, participation as cavemen in the Homecoming ceremonies, and a "Happy Birthday" dance.

Sandy Patrenos, treasurer, reports the class financial standing.

Craig Van Houten learns the presidential ropes as he conducts one of his first class council meetings.

As secretary Lori Schrimpf's main duty is to take complete minutes to assure full coverage of all actions of business.

The lifeblood of our free enterprise system is competition. This circulation in our capitalistic society is practiced daily by producers and consumers throughout our country.

Maryvale community is no different.

Thousands of teenagers, their families, and friends frequent the many shopping centers and business establishments in Maryvale because of

ADVERTISING

to make an exchange of goods, services and money, thusly enriching our economic standards and making this the time of our lives.

This is a hard hat to earn. Wear it proudly. And after you've laid it aside, be sure to keep in mind the things you've learned that made it possible for you to wear your cap and gown — diligence, hard work, studiousness and keeping a goal always before you. Remember these and you'll wear hats that are much harder to earn in life.

Sunset Signals "Time of Our Lives" End

John - well here we are upon another Downs advocation. Glenn It's been to Maryvale High and I wish great knowing of luck and may do you the best of everything
God bless you in Cliff. 66

As the last pages of the Panthorian are completed and attempts are made to put the disjointed yearbook room back in order, the staff stops to muse over its accomplishment.

The production of an annual is an experience costly both in time and talent. Often impediments seem to block the path of production, but there are times when things do go right. For these golden moments, we would like to thank those people of the administration, faculty, student body, and maintenance staff who were cooperative and understanding throughout the year.

The staff is proud of its creation and would hope that in years to come you will remember this, "The Time of Our Lives."

John,
has been fun
knowing you and around you in borderment. I wish in all the luck
in the world.
see ya around
